

Kerry Mulloy

Director of Events and Operations at ACC Liverpool

United Kingdom

Kerry Mulloy has worked for ACC Liverpool since January 2012 and is the Director of Events and Operations and Deputy CEO. Her role covers the three venues on the campus, the M&S Bank Arena, the Convention Centre and Exhibition Centre Liverpool as well as leading on the site Master-planning and construction projects.

Kerry is originally from an HR background starting working in business re-engineering and employment law in the NHS and moving into airports where she changed careers and moved into operational roles becoming Operations Director with Peel Airports and then the Abertis Airport Group. She has ran operations at numerous airports including; Cardiff, Teesside, Doncaster/Sheffield and working on group projects based at Liverpool John Lennon Airport for 2 yrs.

Kerry is currently completing a masters degree in Executive Coaching through the Institute of Leadership and Management and British School of Coaching and undertakes pro-bono work providing executive coaching for local charities and work related referrals outside of her role with ACC Liverpool.