Digital activity that helps our high streets evolve

Why are we here

Consumers are adopting technology faster than the majority of businesses or places are able to deploy it.

Why this is important now

Today

37% of ALL retail sales are influenced by digital.
(that's 4 times more than is sold through e commerce alone).

By 2020

49% of all retail sales will be influenced by digital.

Maybe* Digital Influence Index

This Government endorsed campaign ranks the “Digital Output” of 150K retailers in 1,300K retail locations. The Maybe* platform enables this campaign and links the digital conversation to each physical place.

The UK Digital Influence Index

This campaign has created the UK Digital Influence Index - this gives a daily ranking of the Digital Influence of every retailer and every town in the UK, every day.

- 150,000 retail locations
- 1,300 Towns ranked by social media output
- Daily measurement of follower numbers
- Daily measurement of messages sent
- Sentiment scoring of products, retailers and place
- Measures: Twitter, Instagram and Facebook
- Linked to a physical location data like footfall and sales

It means EVERY town and EVERY

Business can benchmark how they are doing DAILY.

The background image shows the interior of a large, ruined Gothic cathedral. The architecture features high, pointed arches and intricate tracery in the window openings. The stone is a warm, reddish-brown color. The sky is bright blue with scattered white clouds. The overall scene is one of historical grandeur and decay.
