

See students writing even when remote

The KAIT@HOME solution combines familiar pen-and-paper work and a digital learning platform. See students writing, drawing, and solving even if their cameras and audio are off.

Teacher control & flexibility

Automatic attendance tracking

Audio/Video conferencing

Pencast™

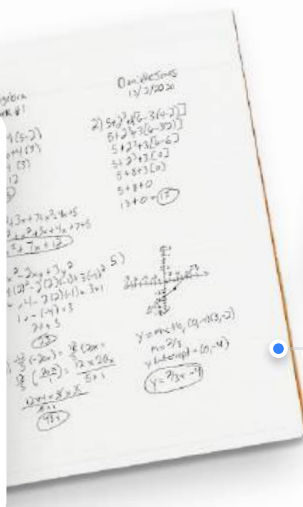

Digital record of work

The writing shows up live as a Pencast™ in the KAIT virtual classroom space

Write with the KAIT ink pen on pattern printed paper or notebook

USB port for charging (10 to 13 hours use)

IR camera to live capture writing

Classic ink cartridge

Patterned paper can be printed on a normal laser printer or purchased

Missed seeing what a student did during a class exercise? Did a student miss class?

All Pencast™ writing is recorded and saved on your dashboard for playback or to send as a PDF file.
