

MondlyWORKS is the future of language learning in education. Based on Mondly, the award-winning language learning app with 100 million users worldwide and official partner of Oxford University Press, MondlyWORKS is used by K-12 schools, universities, and ministries of education, including the Israeli Ministry of Education.

MondlyWORKS fits any school looking to empower their teachers and students with one of the most advanced and engaging language-learning solutions on the market.

Key Features

Most available languages

41 languages and over 1,000 language combinations for every student.

Latest tech & gamification

One of the most technologically advanced and gamified educational apps on the market.

Oxford powered content

Advanced English content created by Oxford University.

1

2

3

4

5

6

Verbal fluency

Over 400h of specific content for practicing verbal communication with chatbots and artificial intelligence.

Empowering teachers

Teachers have access to a dedicated dashboard for tracking progress and managing licenses. Each license can be reassigned to a different student, for free.

Matching curriculum

Custom content development and integration to match your national curriculum is available upon request.

Our partners

An official supplier to the Israeli Ministry of Education

Mondly is an official supplier to the Ministry of Education, transforming the way K-12 students learn languages in Israeli schools across the country.

After successfully conducting a 6-months pilot with over 2,000 students and 50 teachers, Mondly has been integrated into the English, Hebrew, and Arabic teaching curriculum, enabling teachers and students to experience one of the most technologically advanced educational apps on the market. The current project is on track to offering Mondly to over 500,000 students across Israel.

In and out of the classroom

Students have the opportunity to utilize Mondly in and out of the classroom, on their personal or school devices, as instructed by their teachers. Integration with the Ministry's system facilitates a seamless experience for all users, regardless of their location.

Unlimited learning potential

Granting access to 41 languages, students have unlimited access to thousands of hours of learning materials at their fingertips, whenever and wherever they wish to enrich their foreign language skills.

Mondly to every classroom

Mondly is on its way to becoming the go-to language learning solution for K-12 and higher education across the globe, serving millions of students in need of a modern, engaging and efficient tool.

Contact us for trying Mondly at your school

Email: business@mondly.com

Phone: +36 704 087 212

Website: mondly.com/business

