Working under licence with some of the best-loved brands out there, we supply and distribute socks, underwear and hosiery to retailers around the world.

We are the name behind SockShop TORE, Sockshop Wildfeet, Pringle, Jeff Banks and Glenmuir.

SOCKSHOP IS AN ICONIC UK BRAND DEVOTED TO SOCKS AND ACCESSORIES

Launched in 1983, we quickly took the UK high street by storm. Today we distribute our own brands everywhere from the UK to Europe, North America and Australia.

We really care about the people who wear and use our products. All our brands were designed around the unmet market need.

We're a financially stable, long established group with three generations of experience in manufacturing, distributing and retailing socks.

Founded in 1815, Pringle of Scotland is the birthplace of British knitwear. Credited with creating the Intarsia Argyle design, pioneers of the twin-set and expanding knitwear into outerwear, Pringle is one of the most innovative and iconic knitwear brands throughout the world.

Osan has been manufacturing socks for Pringle since the 1990's, maintaining a strong and close-knit relationship for decades. It is because of this relationship that Pringle is now one of the most appreciated and well-loved names in the UK sock market.

We manufacture two ranges for Pringle. Our White Label collection caters for the mass-market whilst our Black Label collection focuses on more luxurious fibres, celebrating design through mastering shape, colour, pattern and texture.

GLENMUIR

Since 1891 when the first consignment of argyle hosiery left the Lanark factory on horse-drawn cart, Glenmuir socks continue to maintain superlative standards and attention to detail.

Today these standards are upheld through the outstanding quality and practicality of the Glenmuir sock collection. Made from the highest quality materials, the range provides ultimate comfort, stability and style.

Glenmuir socks are made using the famous bamboo yarn - and once you try bamboo socks, everything else will pale in comparison. Not only is the yarn vibrant and eye-catching but it's also breathable, moisture wicking and hypo-allergenic.

These socks not only look great but leave your feet feeling great too!

RECYCLED WOOL BOOT SOCKS

Caroline Gardner is best known as one of the UK's leading and most prolific accessory, gift, and stationery designers. Her distinctive designs now stretch across various product categories, including paper, accessories, and lifestyle, all linked by her design handprint, quirky use of colour and placement.

A passion for the simple pleasure derived from using a beautifully designed object, is the driving ethos of this eponymous company, with quality, integrity and good value being the core ethics running through all of Caroline Gardner's product.

The brand's most recognisable prints: modern florals and of course the timeless hand-drawn hearts were developed. The unique 'sweet and sour' colour palette found its voice.

2021 saw the launch of the Caroline Gardner sock collection with Osan. We look forward to what the future holds for this partnership.
