Everyday Collection

2022
Issue No.1

On a recent tour of the Verona paper mill where much of our luxurious paper is made, I was asked by Gabriele, the director, what this strange, foreign phenomenon of a greeting card was all about.

Our humble greeting card – almost uniquely a cultural quirk of English-speaking countries – can often feel at odds with our fast-changing, high-tech world. Despite our being better connected than ever at the click of a button, how seldomly we pause to consider and say the words that really matter to those we love.

The quiet moments of reflection and care in choosing, writing, and giving a card are without parallel. And, in an increasingly challenging world of uncertainty and strife, we need those heartfelt words more than ever.

Samantha Barnes

"When I was little, the world made sense to me when I drew it on paper."

Samantha Barnes delights in the expressive potential of paint and colour to represent her passion for the natural world in all its diversity. From a happy Bee to a quizzical Tiger, a proud Puffin or an Elephant with a voracious appetite; there's something here for everyone to brighten up their day and say something new in a fun and colourful way.

TINGA TINGA ART

Tinga Tinga, an original African art genre developed in Tanzania in the second half of the 20th century, is named after its founder, Edward Saidi Tingatinga. Highly colourful and decorative images of African icons, such as birds, wild animals and savannah landscapes predominate in the works which explore nature's relationship with people.

National Trust

When you send a National Trust card, you are sharing your values, concerns and sense of community. Back in 1895, the National Trust was founded with the aim of saving the nation's heritage and open spaces. Over 125 years on, the Trust has over 5 million members and is still working hard to fulfil these aims.

Historic houses, gardens, mills, coastline, forests, woods, fens, beaches, farmland, moorland, islands, archaeological remains, nature reserves, villages and pubs: the National Trust looks after them and opens them up for everyone.

LOOSE LEASHES BY RON SCHMIDT

Ron's love of photography started at age 9 with an old camera that his Uncle Russ gave him for Christmas. That day, a passion was born. He snapped his first dog photo of his collie Niki and he hasn't stopped taking pictures since.

As an internationally renowned photographer, Ron's conceptual images share the joy that dogs bring to people's lives and have captured the hearts of animal lovers worldwide. To give back, Ron donates a portion of profits to support animal welfare and rescue organizations.

CONTEMPORARY Just Josh

birthday

Don't you just love turning down a side road after gliding off a major road to find a succession of tidy Bumps to slow one down or ruin one's undercarriage. Speed Bump from acclaimed comic artist Dave Coverly celebrates all those 'turns in the road' at moments in daily life that make us laugh and wince in mutual measure. In his own words – "Basically, if life were a movie, these would be the outtakes."

Quentin Blake

"Blake is beyond brilliant. He's anarchic, moral, infinitely subversive, sometimes vicious, socially acute, sparse when he has to be, exuberantly lavish in the detail when he feels like it. He can tell wonderful stories without a single word... I've never met a child who didn't love Quentin Blake."

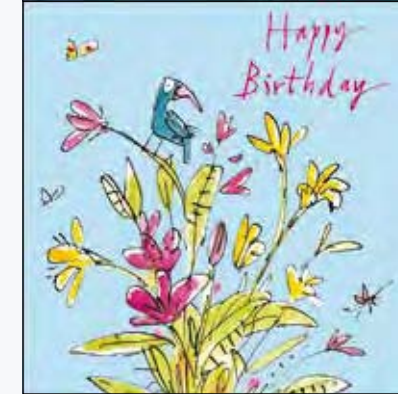

– Melanie McDonagh, Daily Telegraph.

The Telegraph MATT

Matt Pritchett, Pocket Cartoonist at The Daily Telegraph and The Sunday Telegraph has been producing his daily, topical cartoons since 1988.

"His genius lies in being witty without being nasty."

– Charles Moore, quoted in Max Davidson, The Daily Telegraph, 17 October 2008.

Protecting the Environment

At Woodmansterne, we are committed to using sustainable materials and practices wherever possible. As a third-generation family business, we understand the importance of protecting our environment and safeguarding it for the future.

All our cards are printed by us in Croxley, Hertfordshire.

We print using vegetable inks on paper from FSC sustainable forests.

Our envelopes are made from 100% recycled post-consumer waste.

UK manufacturing and distribution keeps our carbon footprint low.

We pack our cards with a paper Smart Seal that saves up to half a million pieces of throw away plastic being sent to landfill every week.

As of December 2020, we have removed all glitter from our products.
