Everyday Collection

2023

Thank goodness!

The buds begin to blossom. The earth is waking up. The days are getting longer. Spring is upon us and we are full of anticipation and hope. This fragile cycle of seasonal renewal, upon which we all depend, seems to be more precious with each passing year.

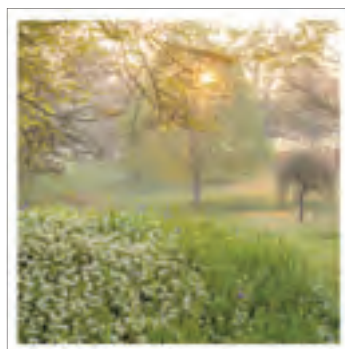

So, too, is our need to share cards with each other bearing messages of hope and encouragement, love and support. At Woodmansterne, we have been following through our own processes of renewal and refreshment. And, it is with a certain amount of excitement and anticipation, that we offer you our latest curation of greeting cards.

Among the new additions is the cover image, taken from our new Emma Bridgewater Art collection (p.16), alongside new ranges Comedy Club (p.78) and Snelse (p.84) to name just a few, as well as the many refreshed classics.

I hope you find among them cards that both delight and raise a smile.

National
Trust

When you send a National Trust card, you are sharing your values, concerns and sense of community. Back in 1895, the National Trust was founded with the aim of saving the nation's heritage and open spaces. Over 125 years on, the Trust has over 5 million members and is still working hard to fulfil these aims.

Historic houses, gardens, mills, coastline, forests, woods, fens, beaches, farmland, moorland, islands, archaeological remains, nature reserves, villages and pubs: the National Trust looks after them and opens them up for everyone.

LOOSE
LEASHES
BY RON SCHMIDT

Ron's love of photography started at age 9 with an old camera that his Uncle Russ gave him for Christmas. That day, a passion was born. He snapped his first dog photo of his collie Niki and he hasn't stopped taking pictures since.

As an internationally renowned photographer, Ron's conceptual images share the joy that dogs bring to people's lives and have captured the hearts of animal lovers worldwide. To give back, Ron donates a portion of profits to support animal welfare and rescue organizations.

National
Trust

An affectionate tribute to our enjoyment of the great-outdoors and the relationship with 'mankind's best friend'. Another exciting and exclusive collaboration between the National Trust and our talented Woodmansterne creative team. These gently humorous cards are lovingly printed on our striking, colourful art board – each card has further details about the property or greenspace depicted as well as a QR code to scan which takes you to online information about the best National Trust places to visit with your dog!

SNELSE

Funny comics are a sure way to brighten someone's day, and that's exactly what comedy writer and illustrator Steve Nelson does! Using his joke-writing background, Steve (aka snelse) creates funny comics that might look rather simple at first glance, but they uncover much more than that at a closer look.

Dave Blazek, creator of the syndicated comic Loose Parts, hails from just outside of Philadelphia in the US, and is syndicated daily to scores of newspapers and websites across the US including The Washington Post and others. Dave and Loose Parts are two-time winners of the coveted Reuben Award (often referred to as the 'Oscar' of cartooning) for Best Newspaper Panel Cartoon; and he has been nominated six times by his fellow cartoonists for that honour. Dave and his cartoons look at the world from an absurdly different angle so you won't hurt your neck doing it yourself.

World of Moose is a creative partnership between Moose Allain, artist, cartoonist and prolific tweeter and Karen, who runs the business side of things.

Allain's work is known for its humour and wordplay. In his finely detailed, playful pictures, he creates a charming world from his imagination.

Actually it's "to whom".

Quentin Blake

"Blake is beyond brilliant. He's anarchic, moral, infinitely subversive, sometimes vicious, socially acute, sparse when he has to be, exuberantly lavish in the detail when he feels like it. He can tell wonderful stories without a single word... I've never met a child who didn't love Quentin Blake."

– Melanie McDonagh, Daily Telegraph.

THE LEAF

NATURAL • refined • REFORMED

Inspired by the finest traditions and crafts,
The Leaf combines the highest qualities of calligraphy, design and manufacturing, with natural, sustainable materials.

Elegant, intricate patterns by Florentine artist Maria Chiara Fantini have been carefully rendered and refined by our skilled craftspeople in Croxley, Hertfordshire, using 100% recycled paper and reformed cotton fibres, sourced from the valleys of Veneto in northern Italy.

Protecting the Environment

At Woodmansterne, we are committed to using sustainable materials and practices wherever possible. As a third-generation family business, we understand the importance of protecting our environment and safeguarding it for the future.

All our cards are printed by us in Croxley, Hertfordshire.

We print using vegetable inks on paper from FSC sustainable forests.

Our envelopes are made from 100% recycled post-consumer waste.

UK manufacturing and distribution keeps our carbon footprint low.

We pack our cards with a paper Smart Seal that saves up to half a million pieces of throw away plastic being sent to landfill every week.

As of December 2020, we have removed all glitter from our products.
