Enhance your garden design

For truly inspiring effects, use string lights creatively in the garden. They can emphasise the architectural shapes of tree branches or be wrapped around tree trunks. Large shrubs clothed in dark foliage can appear as plain masses when dusk falls, string lights will bring them to life.

Highlight structures

If your garden has a pretty summerhouse, gazebo, arch or other structure, outdoor string lights will instantly transform it. The lights also look great draped along the back of a house, along a fence line or around the edge of an extension.
