Books

Button Books is an exciting list of innovative and design-led books aimed at educating and inspiring young minds. Bright and appealing flash cards, board books and interactive activity books will appeal to new readers, while older children can learn about important scientific, geo-political and historical subjects. As well as incorporating hard-working and informative content, the beautiful illustrations combine with high production values, to make each title a gorgeous addition to any child's bookshelf or school library.

Button Books is an imprint of GMC Publications Ltd.

The My World series of books is designed to provide children with the information they need to understand the complex world we live in. Easy-to-follow, bite size text combined with characterful illustrations introduce global social issues to children aged 8 and up in a sensitive and balanced way.

Danielle Brown MBE is a double Paralympic gold medallist and five-time World Champion in archery. She was World Number 1 for her entire career and made history when she became the first disabled person to represent England and win gold as an able-bodied athlete at the Commonwealth Games. Danielle now works as a professional speaker and trainer, specialising in self-development and success skills.

GREAT LIVES IN GRAPHICS

The Great Lives in Graphics series is a fresh approach to looking at the lives of famous and influential people. It takes the essential dates and achievements of each person's life, mixes them with lesser-known facts and trivia, and uses infographics to show them in a new and visual way that is genuinely engaging for children and young adults. The result is a colourful, fascinating and often surprising representation of that person's life, work and legacy. Using timelines, maps, repeated motifs and many more beautiful and informative illustrations, readers learn not just about the main subject of the book but also about the cultural background of the time they lived in.

Live Like a Roman

Discovering the Secrets of Ancient Rome

Claire Saunders, illustrated by Ruth Hickson

Get ready to discover what it was like to live in this epic era of mad, bad emperors, wealthy senators, fearsome gladiators, loyal citizens, struggling lower classes and enslaved workers. Find out first-hand what it's like to play a Roman game for children, use an abacus to help with your schoolwork or taste the unusual flavours of Roman snacks. A fictional enslaved child pops up throughout the book describing the sights, sounds, smells and emotions he experiences as he goes about his daily life.

ISBN: 9781787081260

NEW – Available May 2023

A Roman friend

My name is Tiro. I am eight years old and I have been a slave since I was born. I live in my master's house with my sister and my mother. I have to work hard but my master and mistress are kind and I am treated well. One day I hope to earn my freedom. Have you been to my city before? I want to tell you all about the banquet my master hosted last week, and my trip to the chariot races! Come with me and let me share some stories about my life.

GMBUT-50828

Live Like a Hunter Gatherer

Discovering the Secrets of the Stone Age

Naomi Walmsley, illustrated by Mia Underwood

If you imagined that all Stone Age people lived in caves, were not very clever, not very clean and said "Ugg" a lot, then think again. Marking the start of all human history, the Stone Age lasted around 3.5 million years (the last part of that was only 71 grand parents ago!). Delve into that incredible time with this book packed full of amazing facts, information, crafts, storytelling and myth debunking to find out what it was really like to live as a hunter gatherer.

ISBN: 9781787081208

“The book features lots of activities, from building a shelter to creating cave art, which will allow you to go back in time and live like a hunter gatherer.”

The Week Junior Science+Nature magazine

An immersive experience, with highly detailed illustrations, recipes and crafts.

Includes maps, timelines, labels, pull-out facts and a glossary.

Ideal material to support the learning of popular classroom history topics.

GMBUT-51167

Factology: Bugs

For 400 million years bugs have thrived on Earth and this full-to-bursting volume explores the evolution of insects, their life cycles, special skills, habitats and importance for the wellbeing of our entire planet, as well as showing you how to make a bug hotel, plus much, much more!

ISBN: 9781787081321

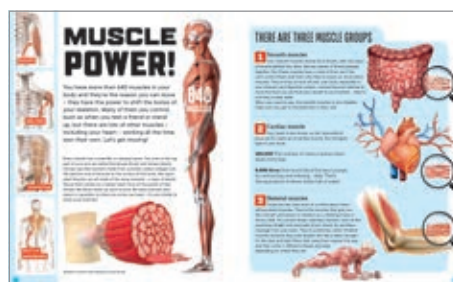

GMBUT-51190

Factology: The Human Body

Take a tour of the world's most incredible living machine: the human body! This fascinating science guide explores the skeletal, muscular and nervous systems, as well as all the vital organs – from the heart to the brain – and the secrets behind how your senses work, plus much, much more!

ISBN: 9781787081345

GMBUT -51191

Factology: Space

Blast through Earth's atmosphere on a mission! This astronomical science guide explores the furthest reaches of outer space, including our solar system and galaxy, the secrets of stars and black holes, the history of human space travel, the scientific brilliance of super-powerful telescopes and satellites, and much, much more!

ISBN: 9781787081352

Robots v people

Sending machines is a lot easier than sending people. The weight of the mission is lighter and so it's cheaper. Robots don't need food, water or oxygen and if the probe accidentally crashes, then nobody's hurt.

How To Be An Explorer

Outdoor Skills and Know-How for Young Adventurers

Tiger Cox

Mountaineers, seafarers, astronauts, cyclists, hikers, divers, gliders, aviators – even the most famous and daring explorers of all time began with small-scale adventures that gave them the courage and the ideas to pursue their greatest achievements. This book aims to give young people the know-how and confidence to get out and about – with practical tasks and activities, mini-adventures, rustic crafts and by telling some truly inspiring tales of real-life explorers. Throughout, Tiger gives us snippets and anecdotes from his own daring expeditions.

“Whether it’s learning about building shelters, filtering water, reading clouds or cooking on a fire you have (safely) made yourself, this guide from a real-life explorer has it all. You’ll also discover more about adventurers past and present.”

The Week Junior Science+Nature magazine

Tiger Cox is a passionate outdoor enthusiast and, having taken on many epic challenges, is no stranger to wild voyages and expeditions. He has a natural affinity for outdoors skills and wants to inspire and educate others, of all ages, to spend more time enjoying these pursuits. He is a paragliding instructor, even teaching his imprinted (trained to accept humans as their ‘parent’) Lanner falcon, Safire, who often accompanies him up to great heights on flights.
