Fox Under The Moon started as a project for me while I was out of work during the 2021 winter lockdown. I wanted to put some hope and positivity out into the world, and so I began sharing my whimsical illustrations and uplifting messages on social media.

Following our own challenges with stress and mental wellbeing, my husband and I sold our house in 2018 and left our teaching jobs in search of a simpler way of life.

When I began creating art, my studio was a 23ft, retro touring caravan that we lived in full time - working minimum wage jobs while we 'reset' our minds and gave ourselves the breathing space to work out what we wanted to do next.

This was the humble beginning of 'Fox Under The Moon'.

Nowadays we work from our small home office, and when we're not touring in our caravan, you'll find us gazing at stars, getting lost in the woods or taking meandering walks with our border collie - Pixie - on the blustery beaches of wild Northumberland.

My 'Fox Under The Moon' artwork series is inspired by the simplicity of everyday life, and the complicated emotions that go with it. Through my work you will meet an anxious, but inquisitive fox, and the wise, old moon. The two become friends, and I hope that their warm and whimsical world can bring some encouragement and love to yours.
