Maison Chanvre

- 'Maison Chanvre' garments are manufactured from a bespoke blend of hemp fibre and Portuguese organic cotton. Milled at the finest quality and highest in Hemp volume.

- A sustainable concept turned fully-functional brand, curated in the midst of a global pandemic and at peak in sustainability consciousness in fashion industries.

- 67% Harvested Hemp

- 33% Fine Portuguese Organic Cotton

- Designed In London

- Produced in a GOTS certified Hemp manufacturer

As we flourish, our aim is to shift locations a self-sufficient, ecological hemp farm in the South of France

Why Hemp? & Why Today?

- More Is More, With Less Water. 7319 Hemp Produces An Incredible 680kg Of Fibre, That's 454kg More Than Cotton. Flourished From Just 1/8th Of The Water Too.
- One cotton t-shirt takes 2,700 liters of water to manufacture. This condition places a massive strain on our natural resources
- Tried & Tested With Years Of Experience. Hemp Has Been Experimented For Over Thousands Of Years In Textiles, Health & Beauty.
- At 7319 'Maison Chanvre', Our Bespoke Hemp Blend Is Breathable, Notably Durable & Softens With Firm & Luxurious In Feel Wash After Wash.
- Our Carbon Emission Footprint Is Small & Proud. 37 Tonnes Of co2 Is Absorbed In Our Products In Their Life Cycle. That's More Effective Than Tree's!
