NECKLACE READING GLASSES

CotiVision™ wanted to make wearing reading glasses stylish, sophisticated and most importantly, always at your fingertips. Our Necklace Reading Glasses do just that! Worn around the neck and lifted to use, like a magnifier, seeing the small print has never been easier. The magnetic construction means they can also be used as a standard glasses chain or are easily converted into a stylish necklace.

Mix and Match with different CotiVision™ chains to compliment your look whatever the occasion.

The Original version "JOEN" comes in five colours and four powers.
However, you can equally customise your look by selecting a front and adding on your choice of chains with magnet ends.
