L'EIGNÉCRA

The inseparable entirety of the consciousness, energy, and matter. This is the Divine spark in a person, while he is residing in the material world.

Monada simultaneously travels through the Absolute, resides statically, and is the constructive core fraction in the Creation.

This is the age-long sensation for your essence. The garment is an outward symbol of spiritual strength, the visible shape of the essence. The recreated nomad sensation reminds the unity of the inward and outward as well as the free spirit itself.
