

Matthew O'Brien
One sheet: Bridal

Couture and ready to wear bridal wear are Matthew O'Brien's passions. The bridal suite at the Chester flagship store is complete with white carpet, chandeliers and champagne. Each bride is assured of best in class personal service from Matthew himself, with both ready to wear and bespoke options.

There are three types of brides who come to me; the lady who knows what she wants and can explain her vision of exactly what she would like to wear on her big day to me; the bride-to-be who has seen a few things that she likes the look of and needs my guidance in pulling it all together; and those who have no idea what they are looking for. It's my job to tease out exactly what is right for them, sense what they will feel fabulous in and to encourage them to consider details that they may not have thought of before.

- Matthew O'Brien.

Every wedding dress is custom made, with two fittings and alterations carried out on-site.

An extensive range of materials are available to choose from.

Production timings are usually six to twelve months, but there is some flexibility in individual circumstances.
