Summer Sorbet

BY SONALI RAMAN

SR by Sonali Raman brings you Summer Sorbet, a new collection of kaftans and dresses that channel the textures, fragrances, hues and flavors of summers!

Soft, pure cottons made from handspun yarn and handwoven by a cluster based in Maheshwar, in the Madhya Pradesh province of India, the fabrics of Summer Sorbet are truly special. Stripes and checks come together in pop pastel hues of summer: think sorbets, glacés, iced lollies, granitas, frozen yogurts, ice creams, frappés and tall, fruity refreshing drinks.

Artfully arranged stripes and checks in shades of lavender blue, mint green, mango yellow and raspberry pink nudge each other as bright whites offset these delicious pop pastels to create a color palette that is distinctive and totally cool.

The collection includes kaftans, long layered dresses, short dresses and mitred stripe dresses that are bias-cut and flow effortlessly to create comfortable, chilled-out yet chic silhouettes. Perfect for pool parties, picnics, a romp at the beach, travel to the tropics or just lounging in your garden hammock, these dresses come with pockets to tuck in your essentials: phones, tissues, and lip gloss.

Our signature chevron motifs in delicate thread-embroidery highlight necklines and side seams, picked out in colors that echo the stripes and checks.

As always, SR by Sonali Raman works to create slow and mindful fashion, seeking like-minded vendors and collaborators. This time, our totally cool fabrics were woven by the talented weavers at Karghewale led by Nivedita, who have been trained and upskilled by the Handloom School in Maheshwar.
