THE ART OF BEING

AKSHARA DEVYANI™ FASHION

Akshara Devyani has been established by Dr Angeliki Koskeridou, or else “Dr Angel”, the Greek Designer, Painter & Holistic Therapist. Akshara Devyani is the Sanskrit name of her, means the vehicle that leads you to Eternity.

All designs, patrons and prints are limited-edition and unique worldwide since they arise exclusively from the paintings she creates herself –inspired by contemporary society, ancient Greece, orthodoxy and nature– and her trademark symbol OAON which means Wholeness. Key features are comfort combined with elegance.

The luxurious collection includes women’s shirts, skirts, pants, suits, jackets, kimonos, transparent clothing type accessories, resort wear, swimwear. The clothes are suitable to be worn daily in the office or in formal occasions while at the same time they are comfortable and easy to wear. All clothes are 100% Greek and include fabrics from natural sources, organic in some cases, recyclable and/or conventional.

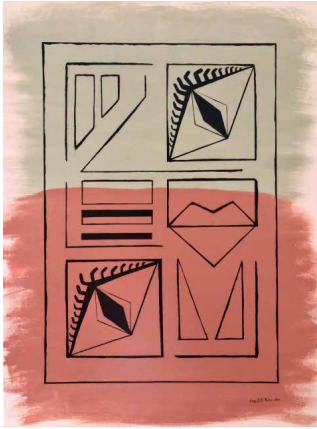

The company’s mission is the holistic awakening and improvement of consumers’ lifestyles through the awareness resulting from the messages it hopes to convey. Fashion can combine art for themes of spirituality, psychology, self-improvement and the environment on a holistic level and Akshara Devyani proves it in action.

Love · Health · Wellness · Forgiveness · Abundance Success · Happiness

OAON™ was given to Dr Angeliki Koskeridou, before a couple of years. It symbolizes the Wholeness and Eternity while reminds us to return back to our Holy Father and find the truth path to save our souls. We are happy to give you the opportunity to offer that gift to your customers.

Choose your painting print, choose your awaking path:

Contemporary Man

The contemporary man adapts to the boxes of social stereotypes, social norms, must, consumerism, restriction, in order to adapt to the image of the time to be accepted. Although the frame of life and our basis, the basis of man is imperfect and limitless, he tries to fit into the box at any cost, ultimately sacrificing his personal freedom, individuality and uniqueness.

Octopus

The imperative to adapt to a restrictive environment can bring imbalances. Avoiding the expression of our emotions can act as a factor in the formation of personality foundations arising from our unmet needs. By understanding our way of thinking and the factors shaping our behavior we can build an environment for ourselves and others that is balanced between needs and norms. By sorting through the chaos you will discover yourself, your limits, your wants and shoulds, the connections between character, behavior and personality, the causes between all these and the interaction with your environment, but also your deepest relationship with God and Wholeness.

The Girl from Divine Future

The Girl is a part from Divine Future painting. Contemplating the Divine future creates the present. A calm river can turn into a stormy sea. What we know today can be overturned tomorrow. Materials change as well as needs, while new needs create new opportunities. Death succeeds life. Masculine and feminine energies give birth through Love, Love. The Father of all begets creation. Abundance breeds simplicity. Freedom comes through seeking the way to break free, and deliverance comes through our repentance and healing. Regeneration yields a self superior to the former. Then the revelation begins.

Mirroring - The Sunset

A mirror can never show anything other than its reflection. However, our reflection can be projected onto many different objects that act as mirrors, but it takes discernment to understand when a third person or an external situation can act as a mirror to use for our benefit and healing.

Pink Diamond - The Hope

Love and hope are synonymous words. The truth is within us. Our heart really knows which path we need to walk in order to find the rainbow and fill our lives with colors. But the path is not always paved as we would ideally like and to discover the pink diamond in our heart, we need firstly to heal every part of us.

The Garden of Flowers

You can always cultivate a colorful garden within yourself!
