Alison
Gardiner

Welcome to the Longton Designs 2022 Christmas Catalogue. Longton Designs is the exclusive distributor of Alison Gardiner and Coppenrath advent calendars in the UK and USA. We are known for having a wide selection of shapes and sizes, allowing us to offer probably the largest range of adverts available in the UK. We hope you will enjoy browsing through the exciting new and well-loved designs and look forward to helping you choose your range for 2022.

Alison Gardiner is an established and popular illustrator, best known for her Christmas and heritage collections. Her range varies from traditional advent calendars and candles to English fine bone china mugs, all designed and manufactured in the UK. This year Alison has added to her Christmas ranges with oven gloves and pot holders (page 36 & 37), and two new advent candle designs (see opposite). These are all produced at our factory in Longton, Stoke-on-Trent.

Coppenrath is a major German publisher who is the market leader in traditional Christmas adverts in Germany. Founded in 1768 and based in Munster, the company has been at the centre of traditional German festivities for generations. The range continues to grow each year and we work closely with their editorial team to create advent calendars that will appeal to all our customers. There are over 10 new Advent designs for 2022, including a set of advent cards printed on a new sustainable eco paper made from grass! These are also supplied without cellobags to reduce the use of plastic.

Musical Calendar

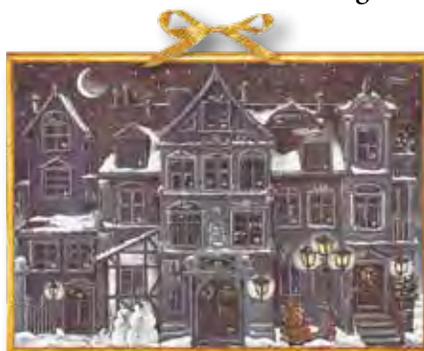

Special Feature

Many of our advent calendars have a special feature where the images inside the windows correspond directly to the main illustration. This has proved a very popular feature with customers about which we often get positive feedback.

For example, please see The Christmas House at Night to the right showing the windows open.

Full details about The Christmas House at Night can be found on page 13.

New Advent Candles from Alison Gardiner

Alison's advent candles are always very popular with customers in the run-up to Christmas and we have introduced two new designs for 2022. Christmas Trees and Nativity are available as dinner and pillar candles and wonderfully illustrated, as shown here. The full range of candles can be found on pages 38-40.

New Advent Calendars from Coppentrath

We are delighted to include these two new panoramic advent calendars in our range for 2022. The Free-Standing Christmas Shops (page 5) is a corresponding calendar to the double-sided Free-Standing Christmas Street which is always one of our best sellers. The Christmas Lights Cityscape (page 7) is a stylish new design. It is a combination of artwork and photographic images, inspired by the buildings in old Munster, Germany, the home of publishers Coppentrath.
