Metal handle diamond argyle leather-spliced bag

This unique diamond argyle leather-spliced bag is made by splicing and stitching with triangular leather pieces one by one, which is complicated and time-consuming to make. The diamond argyle structure on the surface of the bag forms a flexible sense of lines and folding surface. With the brass metal handle, it shows fashion and avant-garde temperament in the classic. Each piece of leather is different in color, texture and depth, and the light shines on the bag to create a rich and vivid change, forming a unique visual experience.

Cost: £58.99

Contrast color Square tote leather bag

This tote bags in chic design, with a leather strap wrapped handle and body connected together. The buckle and bag body uses two kinds of the leather color, looking in unique artistic style. The bag body is in shape of concise square, made of whole piece of thick rawhide, highlighting the natural texture of first layer of tanned rawhide. Hand dyed by craftsmen, one is a deep green like a lake, while the other is a vintage yellowish brown that provides an interesting contrast to the bag handle.
