ABOUT US

M/s KUSAL JEWELLERS has been established as an eminent house of exquisite and exclusive Gold, Diamond and Silver Jewellery in India. Shri Kusal Singhji (our forefather) was a jeweller to the royal family of Maharaja of Patiala in the year 1754 AD and the journey continues till now.

We 'Kusal Jewellers' - the 11th Generation of the said legacy are situated with a luxury outlet in New Delhi offering a delightful shopping experience incorporating quality, artistry, royalty and the seal of excellence since 1987.

Jewellery being an essential element of the fashion industry and the inspiration of bespoke creations, LAURIS & NANDINI have launched a label 'L&N', aiming at a coherent fusion of Indian styles, designs, traditional handicraft embroidery work with western styles and culture which is an epic in the fashion industry.

This is the first Haute Couture Collection by LAURIS & NANDINI 'NAV KAR 2022' is an exclusive and explicit collection developed artistically.

Each creation highlights artistic designs and modern silhouettes sketched by the Founder Designer 'LAURIS' & passionate creativity of 'NANDINI', a fashion designer from LCF, London UAL.

The splendid attires under this brand are manufactured using fabrics like Velvet, Silk, Chiffon, Satin, Fur, Georgette, Cotton and each garment showcases Indian traditional handicraft works done in machine and by hand embroidery using elements like beads, sequins, zardozi, gold and silver threads.

The collection is a symbol of high profile glamour crafted using unusual fabrics, texturing and detailing, fusion of styles, patchwork with embellishments in vibrant colors.

Embossed velvet, pure crepe and satin!
An uber chic attire combining all the above fabrics with intricate multi colored hand embroidery giving the essence of red wine in a 24 carat glass. And if we sip the red wine, we find dreams coming upon us out of the imminent night.

The falling chikan pleats resemble the eccentric Niagara Falls and the intricate cut beaded hand embroidery is a replica of the snow on the mountains. The highlight of this gorgeous couture is the black fur on the shoulder which acts best in the cold weather.

This neo classic ensemble is inspired from cuts and designs of Indian traditional Dhoti style. Embossed in velvet with intricate hand embroidery, the attire gives an impression of the classic Victorian era look. Accentuated with a stylish shimmering jacket which is the reformation of cut and style of the modern times, this attire is a must have for new age fashionistas.

Mirror mirror on the wall,
who's the fairest of them all?

The beautifully decorated mirror on the back and pockets of this shiny long velvet coat is glittering like stars in the cosmos. A perfect dress to be worn on sunny day in winters, set to achieve new goals in the fashion industry.

An ultra luxe attire with sequined flowers bejewelled like multi sapphires on the blazer and silver border on the skirt replicating the diamond strings is making a style statement for the new age women. Highlighting this luxury velvet outfit is the various facets of diamonds in the form of patterns at the back and the sleeves.

Unlike the tusk's color, this ivory jacket manufactured with the luxury fabric velvet is the perfect example of royalty and opulence. An appropriate outfit embellished with cut beads, floral embroidery and bows on the front to reflect your regal charismatic persona.

This new age jacket is depicting folds of harp and the hues of golden sequined embroidery, just like melodious tunes coming out of it. The tweed fabric and the velvet accompanying the lace on the skirt is complimenting the sensuality and class.

This peplum top is pure work of crepe embellished with woven paisley. The royal fabric is paired with horizontal striped georgette with embroidery and sequance all around.

It's time for empress to rule!

Embossed velvet fabric embellished with intricate embroidery on shoulders empowering her to set her own rules. This unique attire is highlighted with delicately master crafted long sleeves

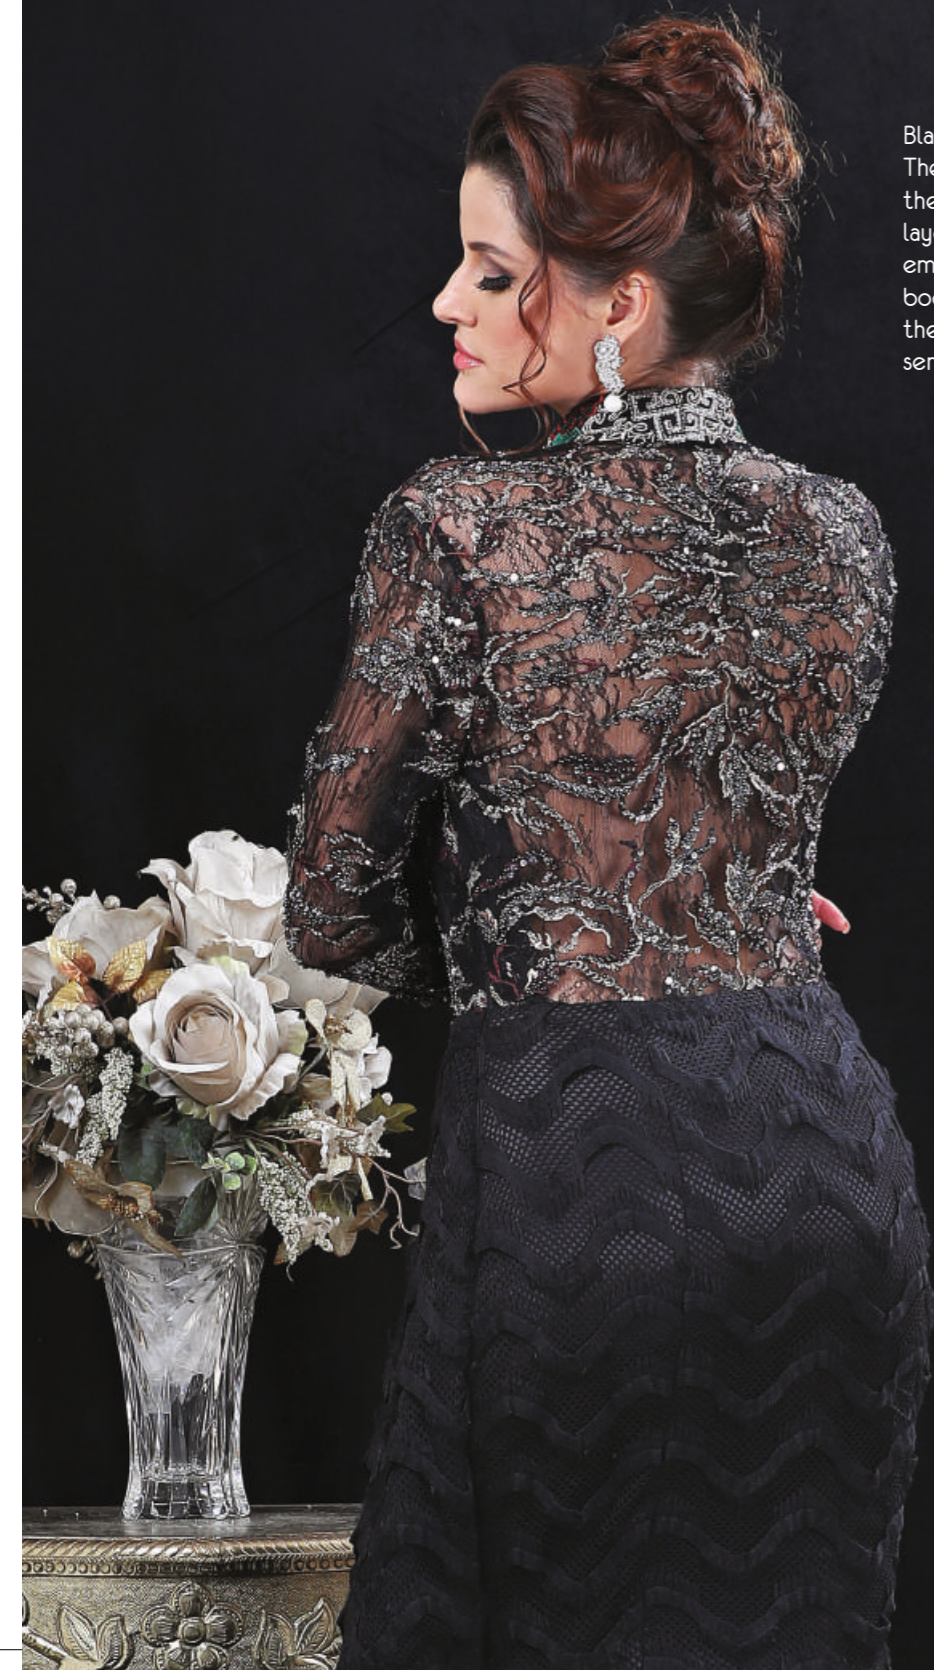

Diamond are forever !

The shiny Swarovski studded over the dress are making a bold feminine style statement and the evenly placed patterns on the skirt are complimenting the curves of a lady figurine. This drop dead gorgeous attire with prom on the shoulder is making a symbol of protection for a woman's security.

Black looks classy.
The long wavy design on the skirt with heavy layering of fully embroidered sheer bodice is purely justifying the statement of sensuality and class.

The ensemble par excellence is adorned by a polki necklace designed on the cleavage part. Multi colored hand embroidery is enhancing the layered printed georgette skirt which is ready to take bold steps for her successful future endeavors.

A pure woollen checked long dress with tuxedo collar is symbolising the queens march on a chess board. The beaded hand embroidery on the collar and cuffs are representing the jewels in the Crowne.

An unparalleled fashion statement can be contained in one color - black.

A long dress in woollen fabric is all ready to set the mood of party. The use of golden embroidered flowers in various cuts of box pleats are ready to outclass. The lace underneath is all set to escort you in a delicate manner. Black is a universal taste but an acquired obsession.

The chequered long coat made of pure wool along with a different cut, embroidered collar and puffy balloon sleeves make one stand out in the crowd. The style quotient and the diligent fabric selection truly make the garment as the masterpiece.

Unlike a couple, the embossed velvet and plain luxury velvet are embracing each other in this long dress, embellished with sequined embroidery on the furry collar and sleeves. The strength of a man in black color and delicacy of a woman in golden embroidery are clearly visible.

Tie me hard Mr. Grey !
The leatherite and velvet patterned skirt is speaking all about the sensuality of a woman.

“When East meets the West fusion happens”!

This outfit in navy blue nett fabric and intricate velvet patched embroidery is the perfect example to justify the above quotation.

This new age draped saree is symbolising the Indian heritage with dignity.

This exclusive ensemble with peplum cut along with brown and black color combination is replicating Jack Daniels bottle.

The luxury velvet is depicting the royalty of the brand and the golden hand sequined embroidery will put you in a hangover.
