JO BERRYMAN

was born and raised in Hong Kong, and began her career as a stylist at Elle UK. She launched a lifestyle and fashion emporium in 2006 and her interior design business Jo Berryman Studio in 2009. Jo's distinctive yet luxurious interiors are polished yet family friendly, with a dash of rock 'n' roll. Her portfolio includes high-profile residential and commercial projects in the UK and USA. Jo's work has featured in Vogue, The Times Magazine and Elle Decoration. Jo lives in Somerset, England. Her life revolves around family, design, art, community and land regeneration.

£25.00

A certain kind of alchemy takes place when you decorate from the heart and style with conviction. In Rebellious Interiors, designer Jo Berryman celebrates a sense of adventure and self-expression. She opens the door to a selection of her own projects as well as paying tribute to other interiors that embrace authenticity over convention, personal connections over material possessions and natural accents over costly works of art. Jo and photographer Bénédicte Drummond visit a series of homes that combine sleek glamour with originality and a playful spirit. Rebellious Interiors encourages the reader to venture out of their decorative comfort zone and revel in the sense of freedom and creativity that ensues. Alongside this captivating visual odyssey, Jo provides a comprehensive sourcing list and a practical guide on realising the fundamentals of her style.

• 'Dopamine decor is the antithesis of sad, beige decor,' according to Homes & Gardens. 'It's colourful and fun and full of personality. It's about decorating your home in a way that makes you happy.'

• '2024 is about comfort, authenticity and owning your own look after years of homogenised interiors,' says House & Garden magazine.

• 'When design is personalised, it's timeless,' says interior designer Jeremiah Brent in Vogue. 'Interiors are about your story, how you live and what you love.'

• Similar titles Rockett St George: Extraordinary Interiors by Jane Rockett and Lucy St George and Faded Glamour by Pearl Lowe have sold 35,000 copies and 14,000 copies respectively.

ABI DARE

is a stylist, photographer and freelance writer, who founded her award-winning interiors and lifestyle blog These Four Walls in 2014. As a synaesthete prone to sensory overload, she has always been drawn to minimalist decor, and her aim is to show that this can be attainable to everyone. Abi shares inspiration for simple, relaxed living on her website and Instagram (@thesefourwallsblog) where she combines beautiful imagery with honest insights and practical advice. She is based in Bristol.

Nomad at Home

ISBN: 978-1-78879-245-5

£35.00

Award-winning interiors blogger Abi Dare of These Four Walls reveals a softer and more relaxed approach to minimalism that will enhance wellbeing and simplify your home. Many of us yearn to transform our interiors into calming sanctuaries and live with less clutter and visual noise. In her first book, Abi reveals how a diverse range of people have done just that, creating soothing minimalist havens that reflect their tastes and tell their stories. An apartment in Copenhagen brings unexpected pops of colour, a 1920s Dutch townhouse is filled with light and a family home in Newcastle takes its cues from nature. These home tours are interspersed with practical advice on choosing a palette, optimizing storage and adding texture. Throughout, Abi guides readers to harness the mood-boosting power of minimalist decor, proving that less really is more.

- Abi Dare's blog These Four Walls won a Sweetpea & Willow Home Influencer Award in 2023 and receives 56.6k visits per month. She has a growing audience of 45.5k followers on Instagram.
- According to YouGov, only 17% of people identify as minimalists, but almost a quarter (23%) say 'I am not minimalist but would like to be.'
- 'Minimalism on steroids' is a key trend for 2024 as designers experiment with monochromatic colour, reports Architectural Digest.
- The hashtag #softminimalism has half a million posts on Instagram and 24.8 million views on TikTok.
- Similar title Scandi Rustic by Rebecca Lawson and Reena Simon has sold 44,000 copies.

Home for the Soul

ISBN: 978-1-78879-241-7

£25.00

Discover how to create a comfortable, sustainable home that is in tune with the seasons and celebrates the beauty of the natural world. In A Home for All Seasons, Kay Prestney and Becca Cherry present beautiful interiors alongside seasonal styling inspiration. Each chapter of the book is dedicated to one of the four seasons. In the spring, celebrate new beginnings: bring in blossom and plant bulbs in antique china. Summer is the time to embrace outdoor living, while autumn brings the harvest as the nights draw in: embrace it with earthy tones, dried flowers and cosy furnishings. And in winter, candles, evergreen foliage and soft sheepskins bring light and warmth to the darkest time of year. Seasonal colour palettes, natural materials and biophilic elements are key to this style of decorating, which uses the changing hues of the natural world to create an intentional, comforting home.

- 'Your mood changes though the seasons – from wanting to feel fresh and light, to wanting to feel cosy,' interior designer Mary Graham of Salvesen Graham has told House & Garden. 'So, if you are able to switch stuff up, I think it can help you be happy at home.'
- Seasonal decorating is closely linked to biophilic design, which 'has become one of the most popular global interior design trends in recent years,' according to Architectural Digest.
- 'The Nature Luxe trend brings the great outdoors inside. Combining green and blue with soft brown and gold furnishings creates a luxury feel in your home,' says Valspar paint expert Sarah Lloyd.
- Similar titles Calm by Sally Denning and Inspired by Nature by Hans Blomquist sold 25,000 copies each.

KATHERINE SORRELL

originally trained in news journalism and spent several years covering dog shows and jumble sales for a regional newspaper before finally finding her niche at Elle Decoration. This led to a successful freelance career writing for many of the UK's leading interiors titles as well as an impressive range of books. After many happy years as associate editor of Homes & Gardens magazine, Katherine relocated to Cornwall, where she now lives with her family.

Everyday Antiques shows how to introduce antique and vintage pieces into every room in the house to create a home that's individual, comfortable and stylish. For most of us, decorating is not about starting with an empty room and filling it with all-new matching furnishings, nor is it a case of inheriting priceless antiques. Often, we begin with a couple of existing pieces then a few hand-me-downs, vintage or secondhand items are thrown into the mix. In Everyday Antiques, Katherine Sorrell shows how to harmoniously introduce these unexpected and individual older pieces into your home – an old portrait that was a lucky junk shop find, perhaps, a set of shapely 1960s glassware found at a French flea market, or an ornate gilt-framed mirror that belonged to your grandma. Incorporating such gems into your home has never been easier, thanks to online marketplaces like eBay and Gumtree and the plethora of antiques dealers popping up on Instagram. Spotting unusual pieces is not only satisfying but, even better, you won't see them anywhere else.

- Hipstoric home is a defining interior trend, according to Pinterest, as people find 'new ways to honour old things in their homes, combining vintage and inherited pieces with modern styles.'

- 'Decorating with antiques has seen a surge in interest [...] they have much to bring to any home,' says Homes & Gardens, while House Beautiful declares, 'Antiques have never looked so chic.'

- The #antiquesoftiktok hashtag has 13.7m views, while #vintagevibes boasts 2.7bn.

Bring texture, colour and depth to your home and embrace sustainable living with vintage finds, which add the perfect finishing touch to any interiors scheme. In modern rooms, an antique chair or a vintage mirror bring much-needed character. And in traditional decorating schemes, faded textiles and mismatched china are all part of the charm. Of course, flea-market shopping is about sustainable recycling, upcycling and repurposing. But it's also about a sense of history and place, about individuality and creating a home that reflects your life and personality. Every piece has a story: the colourful jug found at a car boot fair, a vintage telephone that belonged to a favourite aunt, the little chair discovered in a junk shop or old dustbins that have been repurposed as zinc planters. Flea Market Chic shows how to spot the clever find in a pile of junk, where to look for treasures and how to negotiate, how (and if) to smarten up second-hand items and ways to reuse things you already own.

- Fast furniture is out and vintage collectibles are in for 2024, Vogue reports. 'A home is made when it is filled with things that have meaning to you,' says designer Martin Brudnizki.

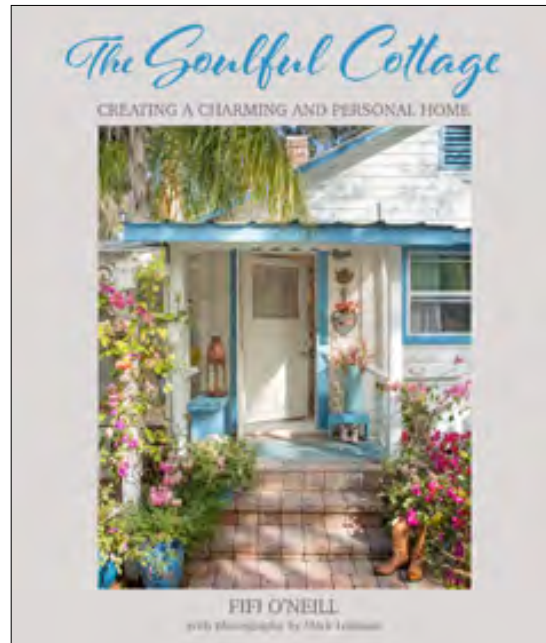

- Pinterest has recorded a 145% increase in searches for 'vintage Americana' and also predicts a rise in 'Eclectic Grandpa' style, a warm and nostalgic approach to interiors.

- This year, flea market shoppers will be hunting for vintage art, picture frames, ceramics and other small accessories – these are The Spruce's 'thrifting trends taking over 2024'.

- 'Consumers are reusing, recycling and re-selling items more than ever before,' says Rob Sieban of United Flea Markets.

Far from folksy, today's cottages are simple yet layered, airy yet enlivened with personal details. Learn to recreate this soulful style at home with best-selling author Fifi O'Neill. The Soulful Cottage embraces cherished ideas – home, family, comfort and style – that are near and dear to our hearts. From bustling cities to idyllic rural settings and seashores, Fifi explores an approach to decoration that is both current and familiar. In the first half of the book, Elements, she considers tactile materials, soft colours, handwoven textiles and homemade items. She then visits 12 enchanting homes, including an upcycler's paradise in California, a coastal hideaway in New England and a jewellery designer's elegant abode in New Mexico. Though always warm and inviting, these cottages have a quiet sophistication that is collected, curated and considered – a fresh, inspiring take on cottage living. The Soulful Cottage looks beyond passing trends to highlight thoughtful interiors crafted with intention and authenticity.

- The cosy appeal of cottage living has overtaken open-plan layouts in 2024, says Architectural Digest. 'Thanks to historic homes [...] the 2000s approach of demolishing all the internal walls has been ditched.'
- House Beautiful reports that 'the English countryside aesthetic is making its way stateside', creating a 'charming and warm atmosphere [...] through grandmillennial touches and thoughtful layering'.
- 'Rounded shapes continue to draw in shoppers looking to create cosy nooks throughout their homes' according to Etsy's 2024 trend report, which also highlights 'handmade details' and 'patinas that pop'.
- Fifi O'Neill's previous books include the bestselling Shades of White, which has sold over 21,000 copies.

Making a home that works for you is the key to a better life. Interiors expert Rebecca West reveals how to align your heart, home and health via small changes that make a big difference. Your home can directly improve your wellbeing and contentment with better health, sleep and relationships, and decrease your stress levels to increase your happiness. In this book, Rebecca reveals how to make your home feel brand new and how to redecorate so you can feel best in your space. Along with inspiring images, there are a variety of self-assessment activities to connect your financial, emotional and physical health to your space to ensure it nurtures your vision. With the valuable advice in Happy Starts at Home, commit to a philosophy of buying fewer things and doing more to discover what's holding you back, in order to find joy and create a home that makes you smile.

- 'Health starts at home,' says UK charity The Health Foundation. It is where 'the building blocks for a good life are created, including safety, warmth, family connection, community, good education and work.'
- 'In 2024 more thought and attention will be paid to ensure that every space in the home is optimized for its occupants,' says Architectural Digest.
- The Science of a Happy Home report by Resi reveals that 'of those who say their home makes them stressed, 50% cite not having enough storage, not having an area to call their own and experiencing conflicts about how spaces are used.' Happy Starts at Home offers solutions to these problems.
- Similar title Calm by Sally Denning has sold 25,600 copies.

Continuing her exploration of English interiors, in Perfect English Townhouse, Ros Byam Shaw visits 14 distinctive townhouses full of charm, character and style. Architecturally, these tall, narrow properties present challenges. How do you make the most of a dark basement kitchen with a low ceiling and limited light? Or allocate space efficiently when you live (and sometimes work) across five floors? And how best to maximize any outdoor space? Perfect English Townhouse features case studies of a variety of Georgian, Victorian and contemporary townhouses, not only in London but also dotted throughout the provincial towns and cities of England. Some of them feel like little pockets of countryside surrounded by pavements, others have a more sophisticated urban allure; some are endearingly quirky, others more classical in mood. All the interiors featured are interesting and inspiring and reflect the personalities of the people who inhabit them. These are the kinds of space that most of us are familiar with, and that many of us occupy. What is unusual is how cleverly and creatively these examples have been decorated and designed, in the enduringly popular Perfect English style.

- 'Ros Byam Shaw does a very good line in... exploring how exactly people live in their particular type of house and advising the rest of us how to achieve a similar decorative look in our own homes' House & Garden

- From the bestselling author of the hugely successful Perfect English and Perfect English Farmhouse, Farrow & Ball Living with Colour, Farrow & Ball Decorating with Colour, English Eccentric and Perfect French Country.

Discover a captivating region in Northern Italy offering the most delicious food, through 75 authentic recipes, cooked with care and attention using the best ingredients. Transport your taste buds to the Veneto through evocative recipes such as Radicchio Rose di Treviso, Carpaccio di Pesce, Fig and Prosciutto Cicchetti, Spicy Sausage and Polenta Lasagne, Risotto ai Frutti di Mare and the traditional Venetian Tiramisù. Fascinating essays are also included to provide background to the history of the region, plus a deep dive into the famous produce, including a study of the wines produced there. The Veneto is a northern Italian region, lying between the base of the Alps and the Adriatic to the south. It has rich soil, a good climate and, as a result, produces rice, many wonderful vegetables, wild and domestic animals, and much dairy produce. It also forms part of the 'polenta, bean and rice belt' of Italy, and risotti, pulses and a beautiful white polenta are more prevalent than pasta. Desserts are beloved in the Veneto. There are many pasticcerie, and shops selling gelati or ice cream. Don't forget about the wonderful Venetian Prosecco (the grapes are grown in Treviso), and grappa, which comes from Vicenza. There is so much to discover and enjoy!

• Cucina Siciliana by the same author has sold 23K and Cucina di Amalfi has sold 14K.

• Polpo, the much admired restaurant chain, raised the profile of food from the Veneto region in the UK.

• Beautiful photography, essays, authentic Italian food – a celebration of the dishes born out everything that the Veneto region has to offer.

BREAKING NEWS! 'Forget Naples. The world's best pizza is made in Chiswick.' – The Times

'Worlds' best pizza chef is based in London, according to the Michelin Guide for Italian Food – Daily Mail

Michele Pascarella, the founder of London's 'Napoli on the Road', was named the best pizza maker on the planet at the Ferrarelle World 50 Top Pizza Europa Awards 2023. Michele is a 'pioneer of contemporary pizza making' and his win is a testament to how he pushes the boundaries of flavour and innovation within the art of pizza making. Originally from Naples, Michele started his business driving around in a three-wheel Ape Piaggio truck complete with a wood-fired oven, making pizzas at markets across London. Now, 8 years later, at his two hugely popular restaurants Michele changes his menu almost entirely every three months, to make use of seasonal ingredients and work with local suppliers. This, Michele's first book, offers 65 delicious recipes for pizza as well as Neapolitan-style street food and he shares stories of his early life growing up in Southern Italy – the people, landscapes and experiences that shaped his creative genius and made him into the stand-out pizzaiola he is today.

- Following news of his award win, Michele appeared live as a studio guest on ITV's This Morning, a show which attracts 90,000 viewers daily.
- His reputation as the world's leading pizzaiola has earned him 29K+ followers to his own Instagram plus 23K+ for Napoli on the Road.

Recipes for delicious home-cooked food from The Flygerians, leading personalities in the fast-emerging, popular West African food scene.

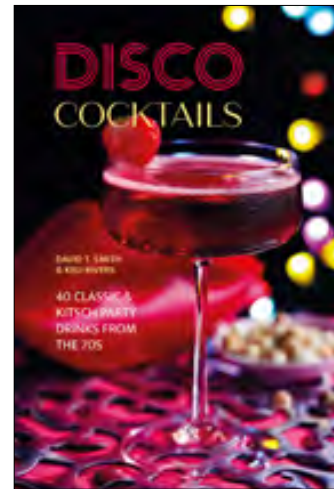

'Street food with a touch of magic, The Flygerians deserve to soar high' – Jimi Famurewa, award-winning food critic, The Evening Standard

Meet two inseparable sisters, Jess and Jo Edun, who are bringing the sweet taste of Nigeria to the UK food scene. Inspired by their Grandma's joyful cooking, they are keeping her legacy alive in their restaurant and pop-up residencies. These Peckham-based siblings are striving to make a positive impact through food and the social connections it can create. They believe great food should speak to your soul and warm the heart. Visit and, as well as Supermalt wings, smokey jollof, pounded yam and rum punch, customers can expect good vibes, care of the Afrobeats soundtrack, and hang out with diners who insist it is the best Nigerian food outside of the homeland. This, their first book delivers recipes for home-cooked dishes for anyone who wants to experience the unique tastes and textures of West African food.

- West African food is seeing a huge rise in popularity, with restaurants including Lekki, Chishuru and The Flygerians leading the way.
- The sisters are attracting media attention with appearances on Sunday Brunch and Steph's Packed Lunch plus reality show Peckham's Finest, social campaigns for Uber and WhatsApp, and 14K followers on Instagram.
- Celebrity fans include British rapper and songwriter, Giggs and the social media stars the Clermont Twins, of the US reality show Bad Girls Club.

40 funky retro recipes for drinks that sum up the carefree and vibrant vibe of the disco era. This upbeat mood was something that allowed people a momentary reprieve from everyday life, and the fun bright drinks on offer were a huge part of that scene. These so-called 'disco drinks' are now making a comeback – defined as cocktails that visually interpret the spirit of that time, they boast bright colours, sweet flavours and amusing, sometimes outrageous and blush-inducing names! Familiar classics such as Between the Sheets, Midori Sour, Blue Lagoon and Lychee Martini until recently seen as a bit 'kitsch' or passé are attracting a new following from a generation who don't remember them from the first time round, as well as returning fans as the quality of ingredients used has improved in the intervening decades. Revisit the iconic drinks you once loved or try fresh new concoctions inspired by this exciting emerging trend. From Murder on the Dancefloor to Thank Funk It's Friday, these disco-inspired beverages will have you slipping into your boogie shoes in just a few delicious sips!

- Some of the world's top bars now have a dedicated 'disco drinks' menu – notably, the Artesian Bar, London, ranked 41 on the World's Best Bars List, launched a reimagined version of the most iconic 70s Disco Drinks in 2020 – you know when a bar of this calibre releases a new menu that it's no gimmick.
- Making cocktails at home has never been more popular, evidenced with the 'Locktail' Instagram phenomenon in 2020, which reinvigorated huge interest.

Enjoy this collection of laksa and other comforting noodle bowl recipes and get to know this popular southeast Asian dish in all its guises. Laksa is a delicious noodle soup consisting of thick noodles, swimming in a warming broth, packed full of fresh and fragrant ingredients with added toppings to add vibrant colour and interesting texture. For fans of spicy yet light-to-eat and reviving dishes, laksa really hits the spot. The origins of this often fiery dish are unclear, but it hails from Peranakan culture, which is based in southeast Asia and is a combination of Chinese, Malay and Indonesian influences. Which is why you can find anything from mild 'Chinese' type curries to sour tamarind varieties in these recipes. Curry laksa is the most often referred to type of noodle soup and is made from a coconut milk and curry paste base. Creamy, often fiery, intense flavours, with lashings of fresh chilli. Whereas Assam laksa is a much lighter version, made with a fragrant broth at its heart, full of tamarind and ginger flavours. Penang laksa is another version made with a tangy, sour fish broth. Slurp your way through this fantastic collection of recipes for laksa and other Asian-inspired noodle bowl recipes and find a dish to satisfy all of your cravings.

- CNN named the Penang laksa as one of the world's best foods.
- The late Anthony Bourdain once called laksa 'the breakfast of the gods'.

'It's a great idea – a book that you can read as well as cook from, and one that, uniquely, sends you straight back to the novels themselves' – Telegraph Online

'In this charming bit of historical reconstruction, Pen Vogler takes authentic recipes from Austen's time and updates them for today. You'll find everything you need to recreate Netherfield Ball in your front room.' – Kathryn Hughes, The Best Books on Food, The Guardian

Enter Jane Austen's world through the kitchens and dining rooms of her characters, and her own family. Food is an important theme in Austen's novels, used as a commodity for showing off, as a way of showing kindness among neighbours, as part of the dynamics of family life, and – of course – for comic effect. Dinner with Mr Darcy takes authentic recipes from the period, inspired by the food that features in Austen's novels and letters, and adapts them for contemporary cooks. The text is interwoven throughout with quotes from the novels, and feature spreads cover some of the key themes of food and eating in Austen's time, including table arrangements, kitchens and gardens, changing mealtimes, and servants and service. Whether you are hoping to beguile a single gentleman in possession of a substantial fortune, or you just want to have your own version of the picnic on Box Hill in Emma, you will find fully updated recipes using easily available ingredients to help you recreate the dishes and dining experiences of Jane Austen's characters and their contemporaries.

- The first edition of Dinner with Mr Darcy sold over 19,000 copies.
- Recent film re-makes of Austen's work keeps popularity for all things Austen-related at an all-time high.
- The Jane Austen festival takes place in Bath, UK each year.

Step into the glitz and glamour of Hollywood with 40 classic and modern cocktails inspired by some of our most legendary stars. Beyond the silver screen, Hollywood has always exerted a significant influence on various aspects of popular culture, including the world of cocktails. From classic romances to fantasy epics, its portrayal of worlds populated by stylish and enigmatic characters sipping on sophisticated libations has left an indelible mark on the drinking scene. Throughout the decades many iconic figures have been associated with glamorous classic cocktails that simply capture their essence, such as a Marilyn Monroe Martini or a Humphrey Bogart Old Fashioned. But in the world of modern mixology there is an exciting trend of creating new cocktails that pay homage to today's most beloved actors. The drinks featured here go beyond the traditional classics and incorporate the personalities of our celebrities, from a seductive Scarlett Johansson-inspired dessert cocktail, to a daring Ryan Reynolds-inspired gin cocktail with a twist, these newer creations are as vibrant and diverse as the stars themselves.

- Celebrities have long held the power to shape popular culture and influence trends, and the world of cocktails and alcohol is no exception.
- Celeb-owned drinks brands from rosé to rum are now commonplace – Ryan Reynolds' Aviation gin, Kate Hudson's King St. Vodka, and Sarah Jessica Parker's Invivo X SJP wine to name just a few!
- Making cocktails at home became popular with the 'Locktail' Instagram phenomenon in 2020 which reinvigorated interest, with 47% of drinkers continuing to explore mixology in the post-pandemic world.

Spirituality is more accessible than you might expect, and is accessible directly through your mind, body and soul. This guide is about you, the individual path that you are on and the path that awaits you. A Guide to the Invisible invites you on a profound exploration of spirituality. At its heart is a very simple but powerful idea – you are connected to the universe, and the universe is connected to you. Kiley Mann takes you along the odyssey of connecting with the wellbeing of her own mind, body and spirit to encourage you to cultivate a deeper relationship with yourself and the world around you. Written with a voice of poetic compassion, and accompanied by Kiley's enthralling artworks, this book offers thought-provoking insights, reflective prompts and heartfelt narratives to help you navigate your own spiritual exploration. From understanding your intuition and nurturing your inner peace to interpreting dreams and finding portals, A Guide to the Invisible offers a reminder of the universal wisdom that is deep inside us all.

- Kiley Mann's first book, The Witch of the Woods (ISBN 978-1-80065-169-2), has sold over 20,000 copies.
- The 2023 World Values Study revealed that young people are more likely to believe in life after death than older generations despite being less religious in general. 'Gen Z are the least likely to be religious by default. But they are more open to spirituality in all its forms than the generation before: a byproduct of growing up in an increasingly uncertain world.' (Telegraph, April 2023)

Spirits in Flowers Oracle Deck

Discover the art of flower divination with this exquisitely illustrated oracle deck and accompanying guidebook. Flowers have much to tell us, if only we know how to listen. Gillian Kemp shares their wisdom through these 52 beautiful cards with specially commissioned artworks, each portraying a different flower. The fully illustrated 128-page guidebook leads you through the art of flower divination, from laying cards for readings to performing flowermancy (sensing information and making a prediction by holding a flowering stem cut from a plant). The card descriptions give meanings for all 52 cards, including deities associated with each flower, the meanings of different colours and simple spells and superstitions. For example, red roses mean true love – for good luck, throw their petals into a fire!

- Oracle decks continue to be popular and sell well for CICO – Animal Messages (ISBN 978-1-90499-184-7) has sold over 51,000 copies and The Guardian Angel Oracle Deck (ISBN 978-1-80065-085-5) has sold over 15,000 copies.

- The botanical trend is everywhere, from interiors to nature-themed art books – #bloomcore has more than 2.5m views on TikTok, and searches for 'floral aesthetic' on Pinterest have grown by 108% in the past six months (The Guardian, Sept 2023).

- The striking illustrations feature flowers from around the world, giving the deck universal appeal.

With these self-care and mindfulness practices, discover a path through the uncharted, invisible territory of grief and learn how you can change, grow and heal through the different types of losses in life. Grounded in author Heather Stang's expertise and heartfelt desire to relieve suffering, Navigating Loss explores the invisible, often minimized nature of grief in a variety of losses, from aging or illness to redundancy, estrangement, or even seasonal loss. Find strength in the unseen through the practical actions of meditation, journaling, creativity and physical self-care as you cultivate presence to tend to your pain and honour your loss. This is your journey on your terms – a refreshing approach to grieving that which you no longer have – with the supportive tools, attitudes and insights necessary to find your way, embrace change and emerge with a deeper understanding of yourself and the world around you.

- Cariad Lloyd's book You Are Not Alone is a Times bestseller and Griecast is her award-winning British podcast.
- Non-death-related losses are often misunderstood and the pain unrecognised, yet occur frequently in everyday life (Psychology Today, 2022).
- Heather offers a self-compassionate approach that steers clear of toxic positivity and spiritual bypassing, which are common pitfalls in addressing grief, a highly unique personal experience.

Make a magical paper garden with these 35 origami projects from bestselling author Mari Ono for plants, butterflies, birds and more, with 60 pieces of origami paper included. There are four great chapters explaining how to bring your paper to life. Chapter 1, In the Wild, shows you how to make beautiful butterflies, a jumping frog and a sweet hedgehog. Chapter 2, Garden Party, features designs to help you set the scene for an outdoor celebration, including a little flower basket, a garden chair and a picnic table. In Chapter 3, Cute Creatures, try your hand at making animals and birds such as a robin, a white rabbit and an adorable cat and dog. Finally, Chapter 4, Beautiful Blooms, shows you how to fold stunning flowers, from a simple rose and a hydrangea to an iris and an evening primrose. Every project comes with simple step-by-step instructions and clear photographs, as well as helpful arrows showing you where to fold. Each design has been given a skill rating, so you can begin with an easy one and, once you've mastered that, move on to a more challenging project.

- Origami appeals to all ages and demographics – as a way to improve fine motor skills and focus in children, and as a mindful craft for adults.
- No expensive tools are required, only paper – and 60 pieces of specially designed origami paper are included with the book.
- Mari Ono is a bestselling author – Origami for Children (ISBN 978-1-906525-80-4) has sold over 334,000 copies.

Make your own collection of 35 cuddly characters with these easy-to-crochet patterns from expert crafter Laura Strutt. Amigurumi is the Japanese art of crocheting 3D toys, and by using just a few basic techniques, you'll be amazed by how you can create inventive projects that are bursting with personality. In chapter 1, Foodie Fun, discover how to crochet a trio of peas in a pod, treats such as a cupcake and an ice cream, and even some mini sushi. Chapter 2, Underwater Adventures, is packed with colourful creatures such as a jellyfish, a seahorse and a mermaid. In chapter 3, Out in the Garden, there are adorable animals including a friendly fox and a sweet bunny as well as an enchanting toadstool. Chapter 4, Daily Life, features charming makes such as crayons in rainbow colours, a little coffee cup and a happy houseplant. Finally, chapter 5, Supersize, includes a range of larger-than-life designs, all made with super-soft chunky chenille yarn. As well as advice on tools and materials, you'll also find a step-by-step illustrated guide to all the crochet stitches and techniques you will need.

- Amigurumi is a key crochet trend: amigurumi soft toys make up a quarter of the crochet patterns available on Ravelry, with 115k patterns out of a total of 477k.
- Laura Strutt is the author of Modern Crocheted Shawls & Wraps (ISBN 978-1-80065-083-1, over 26,000 copies sold) and 35 Knitted Baby Blankets (ISBN 978-1-78249-889-6, over 15,000 copies sold).

Discover a new craft or take your skills to the next level with this beginner's guide to Tunisian crochet which includes 30 gorgeous patterns to make. Tunisian crochet uses many of the same techniques as traditional crochet, but involves holding multiple loops on the hook in a similar way to knitting. All you'll need is a Tunisian crochet hook and some yarn to get started, and the result is a beautifully textured fabric. Discover how to crochet projects for the home such as spiral coasters and a hanging basket, as well as cosy blankets and cushions. There are also patterns for unique shawls, scarves and accessories, from a simple ear warmer and a stripy cowl to a chunky tote bag. Whether you are a beginner or you're looking for new Tunisian crochet ideas, you'll find plenty of stylish designs to make, from quick and simple projects to more adventurous pieces that use a range of techniques such as colourwork, texture stitches and mitred squares. All of the stitches are explained in the illustrated techniques section, and there is also a guide to the tools and materials you will need.

- Laura Strutt is the author of Modern Crocheted Shawls and Wraps (ISBN 978-1-80065-083-1, over 26,000 copies sold) and 35 Knitted Baby Blankets (ISBN 978-1-78249-889-6, over 15,000 copies sold).
- Tunisian crochet-related videos have over 162 million views on TikTok.
- Suitable for complete beginners as well as experienced crocheters who would like to expand their skills.

Kate Eastwood is known and loved for her unique crocheted decorations, as well as her exquisite attention to detail in everything she makes. Here, she shows you how to make 25 beautiful projects that are suitable for beginners as well as experienced crocheters who are looking for simple and innovative designs. In chapter 1, Homewares, find out how to make practical projects such as a stylish tote bag, a trio of stacking storage baskets and easy circular table mats. The second chapter, Blankets & Cushions, includes colourful makes such as a checked blanket, a patchwork pillow and a pretty baby blanket embellished with flowers. Chapter 3, Wreaths & Garlands, features gorgeous decorations such as a festive mistletoe wreath, a simple daisy chain garland and a mini heart wreath. Each project is illustrated with inspiring photography, and there is also a step-by-step techniques section that guides you through all the stitches, skills and techniques you will need.

- Kate Eastwood is the author of Crocheted Wreaths and Garlands (ISBN 978-1-78249-691-5, over 24,000 sold), and Crocheted Home (ISBN 978-1-78249-894-0, over 16,000 copies sold).
- Kate has over 78,000 followers on her Instagram @just_pootling and her designs and tutorials appear on lovecrafts.com and in Simply Crochet magazine.

- Crochet exploded in popularity during the pandemic, with many people taking it up for the first time. Crochet-related videos have over 94 million views on TikTok.

KAREN MILLER & SUSAN RITCHIE learned to knit and crochet as small children in the yarn and sewing shop that their mother ran. Now with families of their own, the sisters have followed in their mother's footsteps, but in 21st-century style. Their online store, Mrs Moon, sells their yarn lines, including Plump, a chunky yarn; Plump DK, its skinnier sister; and Fluff, their furry cousin. They also design unique patterns, teach bespoke classes and run crochet and knitting meet-ups. Find out more at www.mrsmoon.co.uk. Karen and Susan live in south-west London.

Bringing their years of expertise, Karen Miller and Susan Ritchie of Mrs Moon demonstrate just how simple it is to knit modern-casual clothes, accessories and homewares with this collection of 35 knitting patterns, all designed in eco-friendly yarns. There are projects aplenty for you, your home and your family, from an easy-knit Sloppy Joe sweater that will become a favourite wardrobe staple, a brioche scarf that uses a beautifully simple stitch pattern and a zigzag-stripe throw in delicious colours to a textured bolster, a delightfully droopy bunny and a cute baby beanie. Your level of knitting experience doesn't matter with Simple Natural Knits – Karen and Susan have included a techniques section that covers everything you need to know to get started, from casting on to making up. Karen and Susan's regular interactions with knitters of all levels of skill and all kinds of tastes have given them an insight into the types of projects knitters crave, meaning this book is filled with items that will have fingers itching to get started!

- Natural yarns and fabrics have become very appealing among crafters in 'a textile world dominated by globalisation and fast fashion'. (Laughing Hens, 2019)
- There are a variety of projects in neutrals with pops of bright colours, ranging from those that can be made in a day to those that can be made in an afternoon.
- Includes a step-by-step guide to all the stitches and techniques you will need.

MICHAEL CAPUTO studied Advertising and Graphic Design at the Fashion Institute of Technology in New York, and became a designer of children's novelty books, first for HarperCollins and then at Penguin, where he designed his own prize-winning pop-up books. He was introduced to quilting by his mother, a keen quilter, and he has taught quilting at The Institute and at Ray Stitch, both in London, and at shops and exhibitions in the States. When he is not working on his house project, renovating an 1860s townhouse in Jersey City, NJ, he is designing and making quilts for magazines, fabric manufacturers, friends and family.

As well as being satisfying and enjoyable to make, quilting and patchwork projects are a great way of being kind to the planet by upcycling scraps of fabric. Here, Michael Caputo shows you how to use this flourishing and versatile craft to make 25 gorgeous designs in an array of colourful fabrics. If you're a beginner, get started with a simple project such as a seat cushion or some bright coasters and placemats, then practise your skills further with a wonderful colour wheel mini quilt. There are full-size quilts which are perfect for more confident quilters, as you can really let your creativity take charge in choosing the fabrics and colours. And don't forget the reverse – one of Michael's trademarks is that the wrong side of the quilt is just as splendid as the right side. The templates are included and there is a techniques section, as well as step-by-step artworks, to guide you. All you need to do is choose some fun fabrics and you're ready to begin these inventive makes.

- Learn a wide range of quilting techniques – from log cabin and triangle squares to reverse appliqué.
- Using up scraps of fabrics to make quilts is a low-cost and eco-friendly way to craft.
- Taps into current trends for quilted and patchwork fashion and homewares. On TikTok, the hashtag #quilting has over 49.5 million views.

My First Sewing Machine Book
ISBN: 978-1-78249-101-9
 £12.99

Teach your child to sew with this amazing step-by-step guide, filled with 35 fun and easy projects! Suitable for ages 7 and above, Easy Sewing for Kids is full of projects that are specially designed to help children learn to sew. Kids can jump right in with the first chapter, Animals & Other Creatures, and learn how to make all sorts of wild creatures, such as a wise old owl and sock monsters. Meanwhile, Bags, Books & Bedroom Bits 'n' Pieces provides plenty of sewing inspiration, including a tote bag, a cardigan pencil case and an applique cushion. The Dressing Up Time chapter features fun costumes like a pirate hat and patch and lovely fairy wings. Easy Sewing for Kids features easy-to-follow photography and one-to-three difficulty ratings on each project, ensuring that your little ones learn and have fun at the same time!

- Part of the Easy Crafts for Kids series, which also includes Easy Origami for Kids (ISBN 978-1-80065-316-0), Easy Quilting for Kids (ISBN 978-1-80065-317-7), Easy Crochet for Kids (ISBN 978-1-80065-313-9), Easy Paper Crafts for Kids (ISBN 978-1-80065-331-3) and Easy Knitting for Kids (ISBN 978-1-80065-336-8).
- Research by Scholastic (2020) finds that crafting can help children develop fine motor skills, patience, self-esteem and critical thinking.
- Sewing books aimed at children have sold well for CICO: Sewing Machine Basics for Children (ISBN 978-1-80065-102-9) has sold over 16,000 copies and My First Sewing Machine Book (ISBN 978-1-78249-101-9), also by Emma Hardy, has sold over 105,000 copies.
