SHINING TRIBE TAROT

The Definitive Edition
Rachel Pollack

Human beings have practiced the art of divination for millennia. In some cultures, diviners studied patterns in nature—the flight of birds, the forms of clouds, or the arrangement of the stars in the night sky. In others, they created elaborate divinatory systems such as the I Ching and the Tarot. Drawing from the legacy of 50,000 years of human encounters with the Divine, renowned Tarot scholar Rachel Pollack has created THE SHINING TRIBE TAROT. THE SHINING TRIBE TAROT cards are steeped in symbolism drawn from culturally diverse systems including Neolithic rock art, Native American and African shamanism, Aboriginal art, the Kabbalah, Jungian psychology, and the traditional Tarot. The accompanying book includes detailed descriptions of the origin and history of the symbols depicted on each card of this unique deck, as well as explanations of their meanings in divinatory spreads. The minor arcana is focused in nature with the suits represented by stones, rivers, trees, and birds. You will learn how to read the cards for a variety of purposes, including divination, advice, and guidance along your own personal sacred journey.

About the Author

Rachel Pollack (1945–2023) was the leading light and foremost influence on modern Tarot. Her bestselling book, Seventy-Eight Degrees of Wisdom, first published in 1980 and never out of print, is widely described as the “Bible of Tarot.” She was also a great influence upon the science fiction, fantasy, and comics communities, as well as being a trailblazer within the transgender community. A master of many genres, Pollack is renowned for her run of issues #64–87 of Doom Patrol (Vertigo Comics), where she created the first transgender superhero. A prolific author of both fiction and non-fiction, her other books include A Walk through the Forest of Souls, Unquenchable Fire, Godmother Night, and The Fissure King. She was the creator of The Shining Tribe Tarot and wrote the books for numerous other decks, including The Vertigo Tarot and Salvador Dali’s Tarot. Pollack taught at the famed Omega Institute for over thirty years.

TAROT OF THE UNEXPLAINED

A Deck of Cryptids, Ghosts, UFOs and Other Urban Oddities
Davezilla

We are living in strange times. The US Navy has admitted to the existence of UFOs. The US government has been studying cryptids at Skinwalker Ranch. The CIA-sponsored Stargate Project used remote viewers with ESP to spy on other nations. Ghost- and cryptid-hunting shows have become the most heavily watched programs on television. And experts in the paranormal and quantum physics fields are arriving at the same conclusion: All of these seemingly disparate phenomena are related.

Strange times call for strange tools. Tarot of the Unexplained was conceived and designed to represent the most commonly seen and experienced and yet unexplained phenomena: apparitions, Fortean phenomena, and cryptids. It incorporates these modern concerns as suits: Wands, Swords, Cups, and Pentacles become Sasquatch knocking sticks, Ghosts, Portals, and Flying Saucers. Pages have become Fans, Knights are now Hunters, Queens are Advocates, but Kings are Skeptics, and their role is to take a hard look at the situation and ensure you aren't letting your imagination escalate things.

About the Author

Davezilla became in 2001 the first blogger to be sued by a billion-dollar company (he won). Because of this, there is a Davezilla Wikipedia page and Dave has the dubious distinction of being a verb in the Urban Dictionary. He's worked in advertising and illustration most of his life, but also at a think tank for General Motors, and did a brief stint at the Los Alamos National Laboratories, working on science projects he can't discuss. He is a Gardnerian witch (initiated 1979), Discordian (hot dogs on Fridays), Ngangalero (initiated 1993), Santero (initiated 2006), and full-time illustrator. He prefers to paint occult, cryptid, alien, and other fringe topics. He has over forty years in occult/new age religions and thirty years of illustration experience. As the executive vice-president of Campbell Ewald (2nd oldest ad agency in the US), he ran the entire digital department.

SOLA BUSCA TAROT Mini Tarot NMD38

Another jewel is added to Lo Scarabeo's collection of Mini decks: this time it is the turn of the legendary Sola Busca, one of the oldest decks ever created. Printed in the 16th century, this was the first Tarot to deviate from the iconographic standards established at the time by the famous Visconti-Sforza: the Minor Arcana, illustrated for the first time with scenes similar to those depicted in the Triumphs, are numbered in Arabic numerals, unlike the Major Arcana, which follow Roman numerals - all elements that would inspire Arthur Edward Waite and Pamela Colman Smith to create their iconic deck in the early 1900s. This unique edition was created under licence from the Pinacoteca di Brera in Milan, the museum that houses the original version of this precious Renaissance deck.

MINCHIATE FIORENTINE AA15

Firenze 1860 Ca
Giordano Berti

The Anima Antiqua line carries on its archeological quest by unearthing another rare gem of Tarot history: this peculiar Tarot, printed in Tuscany around the year 1860, represents a unique example of the Minchiate tradition, a typical Florentine deck of 97 cards in which the Trumps are expanded by the addition of Prudence, the Three Theological Virtues, the Four Elements, and the Twelve Astrological Signs, with the removal of the High Priestess—or, as it was often called in these kinds of decks, the Popess. All Major Arcana are numbered with Roman numerals (a customary practice in those years) and the dotted frames imitate the traditional Italian flapped edges. As any other product of the Anima Antiqua line, this too is available in a limited edition of 3999 copies only.

VESPERTAROT SP20

Veronica Ciancarini

This Tarot deck tells the story of Vespertiliu, the half-human-half-bat protagonist who sets off for an amazing adventure with her inseparable friend Macigian, a little sorceress who will guide her—much like the character of Virgil in Dante's Divine Comedy—along a magical journey through the Arcana. Vespertiliu embodies the feminine aspects, which are inherent in each of us, and is symbolically associated with the Moon; Macigian, on the other hand, represents masculine characteristics usually tied to the Sun. This exclusive narrative deck is the latest addition to the Horizons line of Lo Scarabeo, offering new, stunning black-and-white art with an original pencil-style linework, and a reading experience in every sense of the term. As any other product of the Horizons line, this too is available in a limited edition of 4,000 copies only.

SUPERNOVA TAROT EX304

Alice Mastroleo
Illustrated by Federico Salis

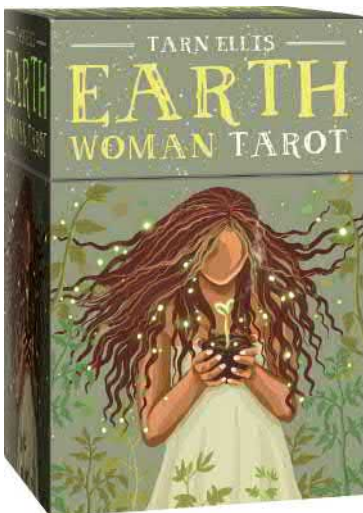

Stylish, edgy, exuberant, rebellious—all this, and much more, is the new SUPERNOVA TAROT by Federico Salis. His unique art with extravagant characters, pop references, sharp, connecting shapes, and a flamboyant colour palette manages to put a fresh, innovative twist on traditional Tarot structure. Both Major and Minor Arcana in this deck are illustrated according to heterogeneous themes and concepts, but retain a general sense of cohesion for aesthetic elements like fashion items, graphic design, and an underlying, eccentric atmosphere created by the peculiar characters and environments depicted in the cards. The result is a deck with a strong personality, filled with details that will certainly enrich your future readings with content and flair.

ORACLE OF THE HEKATEAN PATH OR66

Kenn Payne
Artwork by Chris Butler

From the dark depths of night emerges a unique oracular deck, based entirely on the figure of Hecate, She Who Holds the Keys of the Cosmos. Worshipped under the name of Zea in ancient Athens, this deity has taken on as many forms and titles as the domains she holds: she holds the realm of the liminal, the realm of crossroads, magic, night and the moon. As the Lady of Darkness, Hecate has long been the subject of misunderstandings, being wrongly associated with hostile powers. With this new Oracle, Chris Butler and Kenn Payne confront and correct this prejudice, restoring Hecate to her former glory, and thus revealing the true nature of one of the oldest, most powerful and fascinating goddesses of ancient pagan tradition.

Those who delve into the deep connections between esotericism and psychology cannot help but come across the name of Carl Gustav Jung, one of the most renowned and important personalities in the history of discipline. As a result of his prolific collaboration with Austrian luminary Sigmund Freud, Jung was able to develop his own theory of psychoanalytic derivation, a revolutionary technique known as 'Analytical Psychology' or 'Psychology of the Deep'. Among the principles of this branch, the concept of the Collective Unconscious, an ideal set of innate, instinctive and universal archetypes, is particularly relevant. This Oracle is inspired by these famous archetypes, graphically presenting them with inspirational illustrations to create a personal path of reflection and self-inquiry.

Ezio Tiburzio Anichini's legendary artworks give shape to this amazing Oracle deck, displaying all the style and charm of old Florentine lithographies - a chemical printing technique that acquired great fame during the 1800s, and was particularly popular among cover artists of Scena Illustrata, a historic Italian magazine dedicated to literature and high culture. The images portray angelic or holy figures filled with religious significance: in fact, each card hosts one of the 46 verses of the Litany of Loreto, perfectly inscribed into the halos and the backgrounds of the sacred scene. This ancient Latin litany takes its name from the shrine at the Basilica of Loreto, where it has been recited since the mid-sixteenth century. The divine subjects depicted in the cards surround this deck with an angelic aura that enhances both the artistic and the divinatory qualities of this Oracle.

About the Author

Journalist and author Pierluigi Serra has written for newspapers, magazines and made documentaries for television. He has dealt with esotericism and the phenomena related to magic and spirituality for several years. Born in Florence in 1886, Ezio Anichini worked as an illustrator for the famous Tuscan paper Scena Illustrata and produced numerous posters for theatrical plays. ORACLE OF THE MYTHIC HEROES

Letao Wang
Illustrated by Rosang Zuali & Anjun Guo

In a modern set of forty illustrated oracle cards, thirty-six mortal heroes and heroines and four sacred creatures derived from Greek and Roman mythology come alive to share their wisdom. Instead of the more familiar gods and goddesses like Athena, Zeus, and Poseidon, you'll find stories about humans like the beautiful Helen of Troy, the inventor Daedalus, and the musician Orpheus. Each hero connects to a zodiac sign, imbuing the myth with further archetypal and astrological meanings. Following each myth in the guidebook are real-life examples from the author's spiritual counselling sessions and an exploration of the card's teaching, helping you to interpret and apply the heroes' historical lessons to your own life. Supplemental information such as the astrological planet, decan, and crystal are also included to give you more insight into each hero's divine message.

The beauty of this deck is how it moves beyond the worship of deities and offers a more humanistic approach to interpreting the guidance of the ancient realm. Take this as an invitation to expand your divination practice with ORACLE OF THE MYTHIC HEROES and strengthen your connection to your inner hero or heroine.

Dragons, the oldest creatures in our universe, have accompanied gods, goddesses, planets, angels, elves, and ascended masters through the ages. Together these pairings of dragon and dragon rider create powerful energetic fields that can support us on our way to higher levels of consciousness.

You will connect with dragon riders from all times, countries, and cultures, such as Kuan Yin, Archangel Michael, Mother Mary, planet Mars, the Celtic goddess Ceridwen, and Mother Earth, along with their ancient dragon companions. The deck also includes two joker cards, featuring cats, which, like dragons, magically connect our world to the spirit world. The jokers indicate a great opportunity at hand and, instead of a message, they offer a ritual to support you in making the leap to the next level.

In the guidebook the author explores the different light-filled realms from which the dragon riders originate, as well as deeper interpretations of the messages and teachings of each card, as if the dragon and its rider are speaking directly to you. The riders offer love, courage, abundance, happiness, and a clear, peaceful outlook on many situations in life, as well as helping you connect deeply with your soul.

Sharing direct wisdom from the realms of the dragons and the dragon riders, this oracle deck allows you to connect with dragon energy in a new way and find spiritual support on life's path.

About the Author

In 2000, Christine Arana Fader was introduced to the dragon's energy by the spirit world. Over a period of ten years the beings of light and dragons instructed Christine, leading her to give meditative dragon trance journeys and dragon workshops

If you see the number 777, it could be the universe with a message to take it easy and rest a bit. 888? Whatever is happening, it's the right path to

THE CITADEL - THE FANTASY ARCHETYPE ORACLE

Fez Inkwright

The second deck from bestselling author and illustrator Fez Inkwright, THE CITADEL is a fresh take on oracle decks that is steeped in the magic of fantasy literature, Tolkien's Middle Earth, and tabletop gaming. Each of the 60 cards in this deck represents a person living within the Citadel. The guidebook describes different scenes that the reader will encounter while traveling through the city, including the stories of each character and the interpretation of each card.

At the top of a cliff stands a city. White stone walls gleam in the sun, and banners snap lazily in the breeze. The sea below curls at the rocks, warm and placid, and the lands around are alive with farms, orchards, and livestock. This is the Citadel, home of fates and possibilities, host to remarkable people whose own stories provide an insight into the nature of humanity itself...

LIFE ALIGNMENT CARDS

48 Affirmations and Spiritual Messages to Transform Your Life
The Life Alignment Academy

Life Alignment is a system that can be used to release any blocked issues, transform limiting beliefs, and enhance your inner qualities. Life Alignment can be used in many aspects of life and is an inclusive system, which combines elements of ancient and modern wisdom, in a simple and effective way.

An essential part of the Life Alignment system is the concept of Vortex Technology, which has been developed by its founder, Jeff Levin, to facilitate the process of raising the vibrational frequencies of all aspects of our life, such as our body, food, water, environment and land. Vortex technology is imprinted with high vibrational frequencies that work in concert with powerful Light Beings.

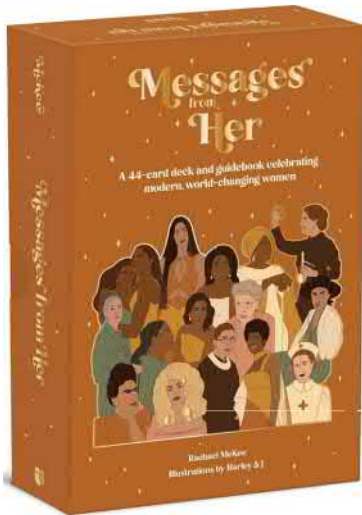

This deck is the first tool of its kind: it brings new-found insight to the Vortex Technology and its inherent powers. Elena Arietti, a Life Alignment Academy teacher, was inspired to connect with the energies of the Vortex Cards and, with the contribution of Jeff Levin, the Life Alignment founder, she created these beautiful spiritual messages and affirmation for each Vortex Card. Together they make up the 48 Life Alignment Inspiration Cards.

The deck allows you to connect on a deep and intuitive level with the core energies of Life Alignment, aiming to be a great place to start understanding Life Alignment for beginners, or an inspiring new approach for experienced practitioners to unlock deeper understanding, facilitate connection and bring inspiration.
