

SUMMER EDIT

Launching first at NEC, Autumn Fair 2024

ABIS – Summer Edit

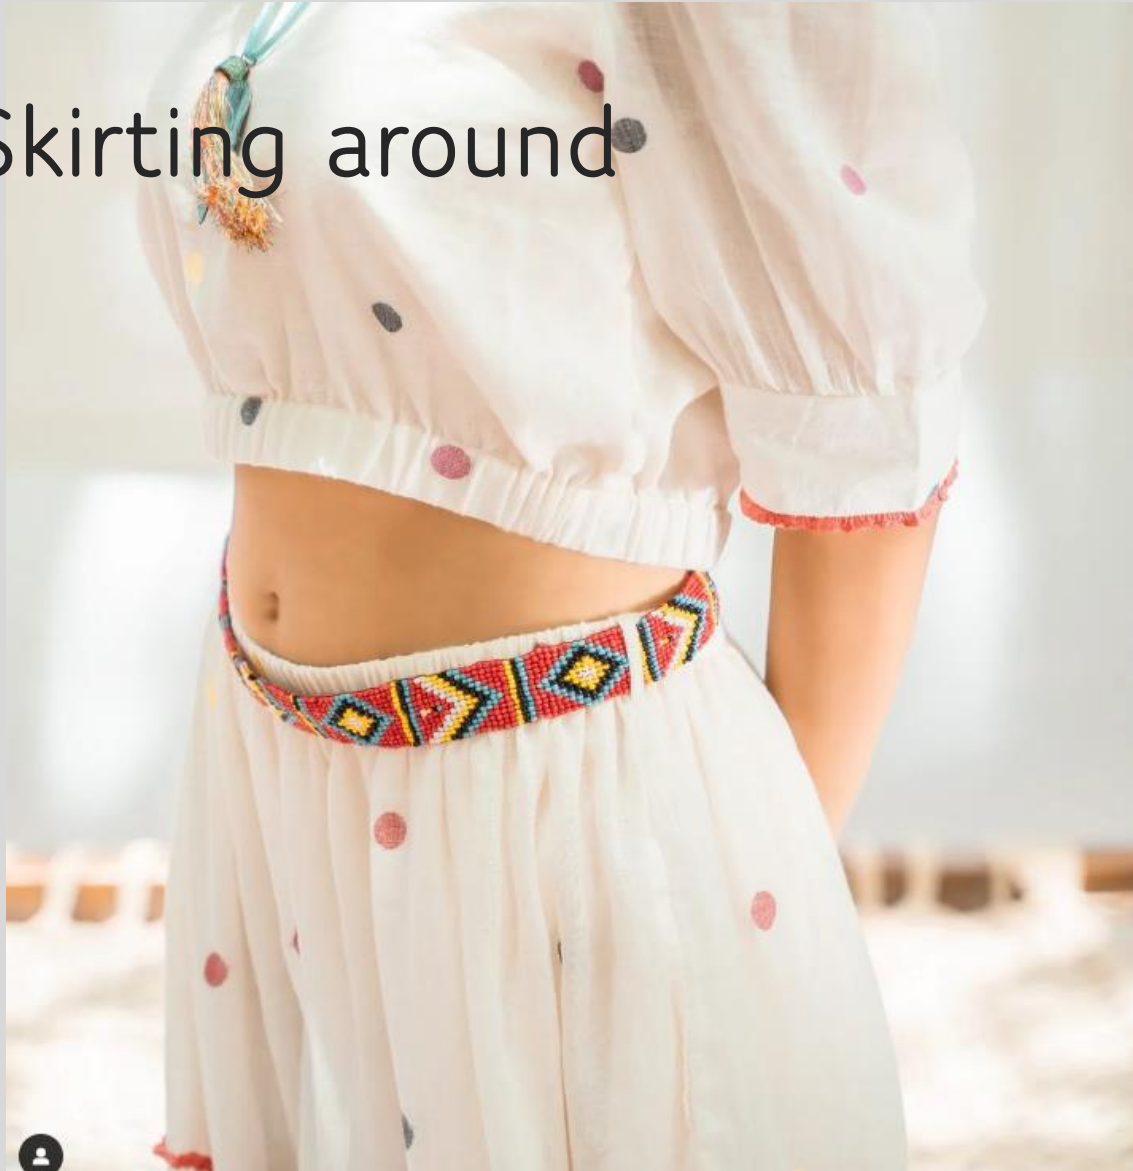

- Our collections of sustainable summer dresses are made from finest quality hand picked mulmul cotton or Kala (Dobby cotton) and have delicate Jamdani weave (indigenous to the Bengal region of India) or floral /geometric embroidery patterns. Made in dyed yarn using Azo free dyes
- They are handcrafted to perfection in our production unit with our skilled artisans and weavers.
- Each design is unique and speaks volume about the dedication to craft and our commitment to making progress in sustainability.
- The detailing in each dress is astounding !

All collections will be made to order and for wholesale only with a minimum order quantity. Ask for FAQs at our booth.

Fair Trade is one of our North stars.
