

DESIGNED WITH A VISION, HANDCRAFTED WITH PREMIUM QUALITY LEATHER.

In a world saturated with mass-produced goods, Geppetto embraces a return to the art of meticulous craftsmanship, offering a collection of handcrafted, premium leather accessories designed to appeal to the refined tastes of our discerning clientele. As a woman-led enterprise, our brand seeks to establish a unique presence within the market, catering to individuals who value precision, attention to detail, and a unique

At Geppetto, our goal is to provide value through timeless design and exceptional workmanship. A philosophy of less is more inspires us to design thoughtful products that make your everyday better.

We manufacture unique, customizable accessories that promise longevity and durability and make the most memorable and functional gifts. The proof of our quality is in the attention to detail and finish of every single piece which is a true representation of the love and creativity of our skilled artisans.

About the Designer

After completing my master's degree in Marketing, I started my career in the year 2000 in the banking industry. In 2012, I embarked on my entrepreneurial journey by joining a jewelry business initiated by my mother. Together over the next few years, we continued to build our brand and cultivated a discerning client base.

In 2021, I established Geppetto to explore my creative inclinations, choosing to work with sustainably sourced leather—a material I particularly admire for its tactile quality, distinctive aroma, and versatile characteristics.

As a female entrepreneur in a country where not many women venture into the leather industry, the challenges were different and at times daunting. With the guidance and support of my Uncle, I started working on my business plan during Covid-19. It is truly humbling to witness the remarkable journey Geppetto has undertaken in just under three years. Starting out with just one silhouette, we have now expanded to incorporate several product ranges within the collection.

There is something specially rewarding in creating bespoke products that are appreciated and valued as special, unique, customizable gifts and indulgence worthy keepsakes. My creativity rhymes perfectly with the colorful, meaningful and functional designs that I create.

I invite you to experience the embodiment of craftsmanship, sophistication, style and luxury with Geppetto
