Volume 12

What started as a hobby culminated into a business venture. Beads Desired started out of a desire by its designer Afsheen Asif to express herself, in 2016 with a simple beginning starting out with hand made Beads Jewellery which happened to be her childhood passion and a way for her to tackle her postpartum depression. With her growing confidence which has reflected upon Beads Desired it has transitioned from its simple beginning now catering to cliental in a wide spectrum in different medium off from simple beads to complex designs.
