

SADHU is a brand of pure luxurious pashmina scarves and throws hand-made from fine cashmere sustainably produced from locally sourced cashmere in the Kashmir valley.

Entirely hand spun and hand woven, these scarves bespeak the age-old legacy of 'Pashmina' as emulated by Kashmiri artisans, generation after generation.

SADHU scarves and shawls are feather- light, whisper-soft and thoroughly warm. Simplicity and unique interplay of colors with delicate weaves impart a unique and timeless quality to the products.

The brand also works with rural artisans in other parts of India to produce collections scarves and throws in Linen, wool and other natural fibers.

Launched in 2011, by New Delhi based textile designer Subhabrata Sadhu, the brand is committed to preserving the heritage of pashmina and other craft traditions by supporting the artisans through continuous livelihood generation.

SADHU scarves are available in many prestigious boutiques and lifestyle stores in the United States, Europe and Japan.
