Our Beeswax/Bean Wraps are made of cotton, beeswax, jojoba oil and tree resin. They are sustainable, natural alternative to plastic wrap for food storage, and they can last for one year with proper care. They can be shaped to objects and form a tight seal. Wrap bread, cheese, vegetables, fruit, or cover a bowl.

A solution for food storage in a natural way

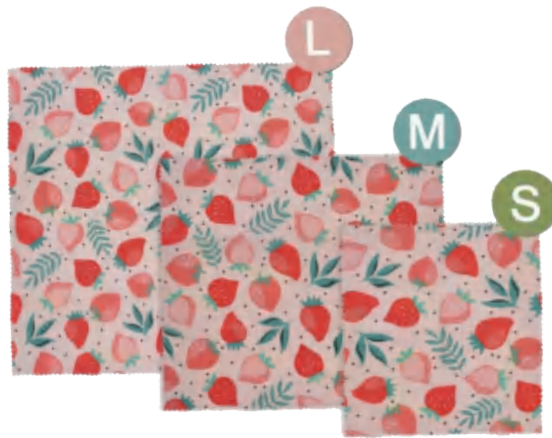

- Plastic free, eco-friendly
- Sustainable, natural alternative
- Washable, reusable
- Biodegradable

Use the warmth of your hands to wrap Beeswax Wrap around a piece of food or over a bowl or casserole dish. The warmth of your hands melts the Beeswax Wrap, softening the wrap enough to create a seal around containers and food products. Use your Beeswax Wrap to wrap cheese, vegetables, bread, fruit, baked goods, or cover a bowl, or pack a snack for your next adventure.

Get more bang for your buck with our reusable beeswax wraps 6-pack, which will allow you to cover anything from half a lemon to a big salad bowl.

MAINTENANCE INSTRUCTIONS

The working life of beeswax wrap depends on usage frequency, washing method and maintenance. Normally beeswax wrap can be rinsed and air-dried after single uses. If the wrap requires more thorough cleaning, it can be sponged with soap, cold water, rinsed and hung to air dry.

Do you have any additional notes or warnings?

- We do not recommend using the wrap with raw meat.
- Do not use hot water with our products at any point.
- Keep wraps away from any heat source such as Microwave, oven, or dishwasher.
- Do not use for cutting on.

Wash your Cultical beeswax wrap in cool water with mild dish soap. Keep away from heat sources such as dishwasher, hot water or microwaves.

We also have beeswax bags, beeswax rolls, beeswax wrap with button and string, beeswax block and honey soap.
