SHEFFIELD ENGLAND SINCE 1730

Hello and a warm welcome to our New Product update for 2023-24

In these pages you'll find out about our exciting new ranges, which are the latest introductions in our fruitful collaborations with the RHS and with Sophie Conran. You can see some of our new product highlights opposite.

The combination of Burgon & Ball's expertise in tools combined with our individual partners' gardening know-how is a unique proposition for retailers to offer - and it's a combination with great customer appeal.

We hope you enjoy browsing this update, and we look forward to working with you!

GROWING GARDENERS

Family Gardening range

Introducing a new family gardening concept which builds on the passion for gardening together that families discovered during lockdown.

In an innovative step, the range of tools and accessories is backed by an online resource with family-friendly ideas, projects and inspiration from the trusted experts at the RHS, developed to make gardening with children easy and fun.

ONLINE CONTENT TO SUPPORT NEW GROWING GARDENERS

A selection of easy projects in one easy-to-access online resource will make family gardening simple for non-gardening parents, helping them to encourage their kids to connect with the garden.

- Downloadable, printable PDF activity sheets for simple family gardening projects, e.g. 'Grow a Sunflower'
- Featuring RHS-approved projects lends authority, reassuring parents they are 'doing it right'
- Gardening provides parents the opportunity to keep their kids busy! Give them the activities which will help them fill their children's time
- Planned video content
