THE INSPIRATION BEHIND
The Humble Hare...

It seemed very fitting that our first Hare design is given the all important company name! We often see a glimpse of our resident hares across the fields on our misty early-morning dog walks.

THE HUMBLE HARE

It seemed very fitting that our first Hare design is given the all-important company name! You will typically find him exploring and tumbling around with a friend or two, trying to keep out of sight.

The Garden Gathering...

We see an abundance of British garden birds all over the farm, and they inspired this classic design. Can you spot the robin who lives in ex-racehorse KD's stable? And the rowdy sparrows who make a racket in the trees outside our office!

THE GARDEN GATHERING

A celebration of the birds we see around the farm. From our resident robin to the cheeky sparrows chattering outside our workshop.

The Humming Hives...

On spring afternoons we love to enjoy the beautiful buttercup meadow, full of clover and buzzing bees. The hive is inspired by traditional wicker bee skeps, which nowadays are used to encourage bumblebees and other wild pollinators into the garden.

THE HUMMING HIVES

Welcome to the buttercup meadow, where the bees are busily gathering nectar and pollen to bring back to their hive, a traditional bee skep.

Our local fox family had to be featured in one our designs of course! If you're very quiet and still, you might see Mrs. Fox peeping out of the den high on the hill next to the paddocks.

THE FAITHFUL FOX

If you're very quiet and still, you might discover a hidden den, where fox cubs are up to mischief while mum keeps watch.

The Hopeful Hare...

This design was inspired by a hare couple that we spot frequently here at the farm, and they seem very much in love... We sometimes catch this cheeky pair hopping past the workshop, but not for long as they're very shy!

THE HOPEFUL HARE

It's springtime at the farm, the birds are singing, and the bees are buzzing. Nestled in the long grass, our courting hares are hoping to find love!

The Happy Hedgerow...

The paddock gate is one of our favourite views on the farm, so we just had to include it in one of our designs! We see a whole community of birds catching up on the gossip in the surrounding hedgerow, including our vibrant Green Woodpecker.

THE HAPPY HEDGEROW

The Doting Deer...

Inspired by the herd who visit us at the farm, we knew we had to paint the regal red deer. These majestic creatures hold a special place in British culture and history, symbolising the untamed beauty of the countryside.

THE DOTING DEER

The majestic sight of a regal stag and dainty hind roaming mountains and moorland. If you wait quietly you might even see their spotted fawns hidden in the heather...

The First Snowfall...

Inspired by the quiet, almost magical moment the first snow of winter begins to fall, transforming the farm into a winter wonderland. We knew we had to include one of the splendid stags who visit our family farm in our first ever Christmas design!

THE FIRST SNOWFALL

The night is quiet, not a creature is stirring, and a splendid stag is roaming the highlands as the first snow starts to fall...

The Hairy Highlands...

Although we gain an abundance of inspiration from the landscape surrounding our family farm, occasionally we venture further afield. On our last holiday, we fell in love with the highland cattle next door! This design is inspired by the happy herd, and brings back fond memories of time spent together as a family.
