I Can Change the World Personalised Book

Positioning: Young Child

Part of any child's development of healthy self-esteem is making a habit of giving back to others. I Can Change the World! is an uplifting personalised storybook that teaches your child that change can start with just one person—your child! Even a small child has the ability to spread kindness and change the world by using manners, doing chores around the house to help the family, being a good friend, collecting food for the hungry, and more. Even a simple smile can change someone else's day! This storybook empowers kids to believe in themselves and their ability to affect change in those around them.

I Can Change the World! is personalised with your child's name on the cover and throughout the book and illustrations.
