CE Brand Presentation 2024

Lasgo Worldwide Media are the UK's longest established home entertainment product wholesaler supplying the entertainment sector for over 40 years.

Since joining the Little Group in 2013 this has significantly enabled us to expand our ranges and depth of products along with investment into new systems and technologies.

To reflect the rapidly changing nature of its business Lasgo now operates through two divisions: wholesale and distribution.

We have a specialist team dedicated at procuring stock with an impressive network of Global suppliers, we are therefore confident that we can fulfil any customer requirements.

LEDWOOD

LEDWOOD was born from the idea of two men : Fabrice and Olivier in 2016, who share the objective of « making technology accessible to all ». The French brand set the tune on the wired earphones market.

As technologies evolve, we then marketed the first new generation jukeboxes, including Bluetooth and USB ports. In this logic, we expanded our range with the first Bluetooth True Wireless earphones. In 2018, at the launch of this new range, the success was huge. Since then, our range of wireless connected devices developed and its products became the brand's emblem.
