Introducing... The Great Outdoors

We're delighted to share our new collection of Outdoor Rugs, Cushions and Indoor/Outdoor Tableware for the SS25 season, growing our ever popular range into new styles for the modern home.

With rising house prices and the high cost of moving, homeowners are having to find creative ways to maximise on space at home, and this has firmly led in the rise of creating more lifestyle-led spaces in the garden.

Outdoor kitchens, cosy lounge areas and creatively styled spaces outdoors have become part of our everyday summer living, and Riva Home are proud to help homeowners easily accessorise and add those perfect finishing touches to make these spaces truly shine.

"We understand the power of great design with quality fabrics and materials, and we only bring products to the market that we genuinely love. We are proud to offer unique, creative designs for outdoor spaces, blending with the functionality needed for our Great British summers – such as our machine washable outdoor rugs, and brand new jute-effect rugs in our relaxed living collection for Yard."

Anna Jones, Brand Manager

Get to know: Outdoor Rugs

Outdoor rugs have steadily become more popular in recent years, with new materials, patterns and colourways constantly coming into vogue. And with many choosing to shower their balconies, porches and patios with all the style and comfort that was once reserved for interiors, it feels like the outdoor space is having its biggest moment yet. So, to help you navigate this new territory and feel confident in your purchase, let's dive into everything you need to know about outdoor rugs.

UV rays from the sun can cause outdoor fabrics to break down over time and shorten the lifespan of the material, so we recommend bringing your outdoor cushions inside when you are finished using them, to keep them looking beautiful for many summers to come.

Get to know: Outdoor Cushions

Made from water resistant material, our outdoor cushions are designed to withstand showers and spills. So whether you are watering the garden, have the little ones splashing in a pool or experience the British weather taking a sudden U-turn, you don't have to worry about soggy and damp smelling cushions if you leave them outside.

UV rays from the sun can cause outdoor fabrics to break down over time and shorten the lifespan of the material, so we recommend bringing your outdoor cushions inside when you are finished using them, to keep them looking beautiful for many summers to come.

Get to know: Tableware

Say goodbye to paper plates, tired tabletops and sacrificing comfort at mealtimes - our outdoor dining range is bringing luxury back to open-air eating. Characterised by bright summer hues, tantalising textures and an abundance of fresh fruit prints - our tableware collection is all about elevating alfresco dining with decor that looks good enough to eat.

Swap out plain table surfaces for lush layers of outdoor table linen. Unroll a vibrant outdoor table runner for your serving dishes and centrepieces, and complement with a matching set of outdoor placemats to really get guests talking.
