Sustainability

At Earth Squared we aim to put people and planet first which is why sustainability is so important to us. At Earth Squared we aim to put people and planet first which is why sustainability is so important to us. All of our fashion products use recycled lining fabric and a number of our ranges make extensive use of recycled elements, including our tweed, applique and voyage collections.

Further, all handbags, purses and accessories will arrive with you in entirely biodegradable, compostable, recyclable and marine friendly bags. This innovative packaging biodegrades entirely after use – so that products reach you in perfect condition but with zero end of life problems.

B Corp Certification

We are delighted to be B Corp certified – a certification which means we balance purpose and profit and are legally obliged to consider the impact of our decisions on the environment as well as our customers, workers and community.

As part of the certification, our processes and supply chain have been assessed by B Corp which has been a great way of learning our strengths and weaknesses, and growing as a responsible business. And by buying from a B Corp you can be assured that you are supporting a business committed to make a positive difference to the world around us.

Giving back

We support a number of environmental initiatives in conjunction with GetGreenspark, all with the aim of reducing the impact of our carbon footprint. Since starting these initiatives -

- Our collected plastic is equivalent to: 247,050 disposable coffee cups worth of plastic saved from landfill.
- We have planted 968 trees, equivalent to over 3,900 m² of forest area.
- We have recycled the equivalent of over 49,000 plastic bottles.

With lots more still to do...!
