

Welcome to the Sacred Earth Lodge

Stay with the descendants of Chief Red Cloud - Mahpiya Luta

Sacred Earth Lodge is an eco-friendly retreat center located on the Pine Ridge Reservation in South Dakota. The space was created for our Tribal Renewable Energy Training Program, but is also available to rent by visiting groups, as well as for conferences, workshops, and as an affordable meeting location.

We offer unforgettable volunteer opportunities, cultural experiences, and day trips in the heart of Lakota Country. We hope you will visit soon!

Home of the Oglala Lakota

Sacred Earth Lodge is located on the Pine Ridge Reservation in South Dakota, just 9 miles north of Pine Ridge Village

Sacred Earth Lodge Amenities

3 Bedrooms - Sleeps 23 total

- One small bedroom sleeps three
- Two large dormitories with bunk beds sleeps ten per room

Camping

- Must bring your own equipment

Women's and Men's Restrooms and Showers

Washer and Dryer

Community Kitchen

- Fully-equipped commercial kitchen with cookware, dishes, and utensils.
- Dining space for 30-35 people

Learning and Meeting Space

- Classroom with seating for 30 students
- Projector screen and whiteboard
- On-site renewable energy and energy efficiency demonstrations

Rental Rates

Lodging in the Dormitory (includes a bed, use of bathrooms, kitchen and dining area)

- $35/person/night if we provide bedding
- $30/person/night if you provide your own bedding

Meeting Room

- $150/day for meeting room, includes classroom, dining room, and bathrooms. Additional $50 for use of the kitchen for preparing meals

Camping

- $20/tent (own equipment required, includes use of restrooms and kitchen facilities)

To make your reservation for Sacred Earth Lodge contact:

Richard Fox
(970) 391-0148

richard@redcloudrenewable.org