The Perfect Pod

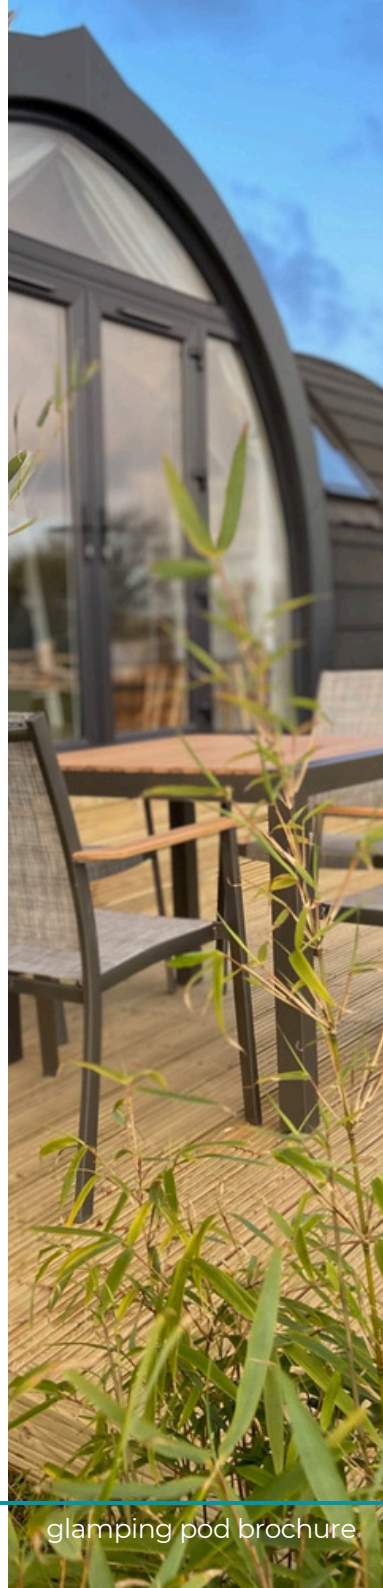

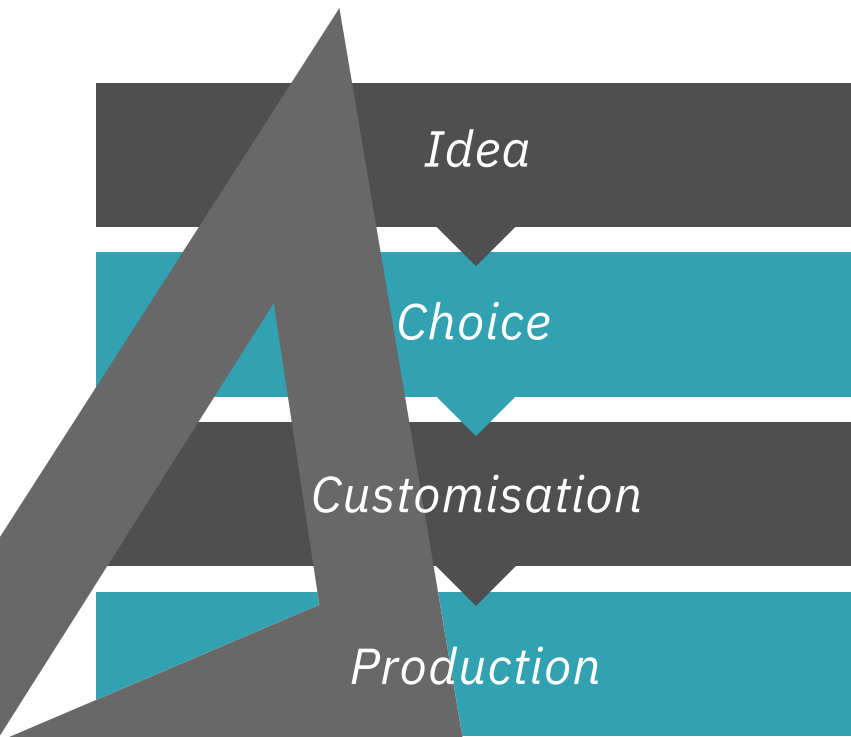

Picking your pod is a huge part of the decision-making process. After all, the pod (or pods) you pick are the most distinctive feature of your site and largely determine your guests' stay and experience. They also set your nightly rates and dictate your return on investment. Choosing the right pod for your guests is a big task and arguably one of the most important decisions you'll make during the entire process. The Glampitect team will be on hand to offer informed, expert advice every step of the way so you can be confident you're choosing the right pod for your site.

Choosing your pod is one of the most important parts of the decision-making process

Trust The Process

You probably had a vague idea of the experience you wanted to offer before you started your project, that's usually what kick starts everything. The most exciting decision making then comes when you're ready to choose your glamping units. When it comes to pod design, the possibilities are endless. We specialise in designing and building pods that will achieve your goals and suit your needs. Our pods are custom built and tailor-made so they will be exactly what you want.

Why Choose Us As Your Pod Supplier?

We know pods. Since 2019, we've delivered over 1,500 projects and worked alongside pod suppliers across the UK and beyond — so we've seen the good, the bad, and the downright awful.

The truth? Choosing the wrong supplier will cost you time, money, and bookings.

That's why we've built something different.

With our new ownership structure — combining bespoke manufacturing expertise with real glamping site owners — we don't just supply pods... we understand what actually works on-site and what drives profit.

From design and manufacture to full site setup, we now offer a complete end-to-end solution.

No guesswork. No shortcuts. Just proven results.

And with experience in the industry dating back to 2010 — you're in safe hands.

We are now the largest Glamping Specialist Company in the UK and Ireland, providing an end-to-end solution from feasibility, planning to manufacturing, groundworks - all the way up to assisting with booking system set up and receiving your first guest!

Our Range of Pods

We offer a wide range of pods to suit all manner of customer needs from boutique wedding venues to small-scale glamping sites.
