Employee eyecare benefits are an increasingly important aspect of many workplace wellbeing concepts, as more employers than ever before realise that a healthy workforce is a productive one.

EyecarePlans was founded in 1991 in direct response to the introduction of the Display Screen Equipment Regulations, to provide legislative compliance to private and public sector organisations. To complement our company-funded optical voucher system we have now partnered with EyeMed, the fastest growing vision benefit provider in the US to launch a new monthly employee benefit membership scheme. As part of the EssilorLuxottica group - which owns eyewear brands such as RayBan, Oakley, Chanel, Burberry, Prada, Transition and Varilux lenses – our members have unprecedented access to the most popular eyewear. Our retail stores include David Clulow, John Lewis opticians and we partner with over 1000+ independent high street opticians across the UK. As a managed eyecare model, we assure that your client not only receive easy access to eyecare but excellent products and services.
