“

Joao was an excellent host who went above and beyond to make the holiday special. He was very informative about Portugal and its nature (trees, plants etc). Joao, the bird guide, was also excellent with an in depth knowledge that he was able to convey and share with everyone. No one went home without being able to identify a black winged stilt! Thanks to everyone involved for such a special holiday.

Bound by two rivers and a haven of peace and solitude, Rosário might as well be an island — as its name ‘Ilha’ suggests. WALKING IN LAKE MAGGIORE

HIGHLIGHTS

- > 7 Nights half board in Stresa

Italy's second largest lake, which stretches north from Lombardy and up into Switzerland. It lies sheltered on the south side of the Alps, making for a mild climate and consequent lush vegetation, with Mediterranean and exotic flora, including azaleas, rhododendrons, and camellias.

Maggiore is, in our view, much more scenic than, for example, the much larger Lake Garda to the East.

WALK ONE

2.5 MILES - 150M ASCENT/DESCENT

Take the train up the lake to the station of Fondotoce before ascending 150m to the little hamlet of Montorfano, which has stunning views over Lake Maggiore. You continue down a gently sloping path to Mergozzo, a small village on the shores of its own little lake.

WALK TWO

5 MILES - 350M ASCENT/DESCENT

Begin your walk through the clustered medieval village houses, linked by seemingly random arched passageways. You then follow a mule track past orchards, fine old villas, a 14th century tower & a chapel, from where there are lovely views out over the lake, towards the Borromeo islands & the Alps beyond.

WALK THREE

Traditionally lower key than its neighbours Mallorca (Majorca) and Ibiza, the island of Menorca may be just 30 miles long and 10 miles across, but it hosts a world of contrasts. The north is comparatively lush and green, with extensive bays and long headlands. The south is much rockier with many caves. At the eastern end lies the island's capital Mahon, a historic City well worth exploring. To the west lies Ciutadella, a former island capital, again with impressive city walls and harbour, much quieter than the capital. But, it is the island's unspoilt beaches and coves that may impress you most of all, our resort area of Son Bou is home to one of the best of them.

WALKING IN CYPRUS

HIGHLIGHTS

- > 7 Nights half board in Paphos
- > 3 Guided walks included
- > Paphos orientation walk
- > Knowledgeable local walking guides

Cyprus is an ancient land of mystery, legend, beauty and love. At the crossroads of three continents, the area has a long history of invasions.

If it wasn't for its mountain ranges, whose winter snows irrigate the island, Cyprus would be desert instead of the lush, green landscapes you now find here. Paphos was the capital for 600 years and its visible archaeological legacy has led to the whole town being placed on the UNESCO World Heritage List. Two of the walks included in the itinerary highlight the Akamas peninsula – an area of rocky coves, sandy bays on the coast and picturesque villages inland.
