gala Municipality V co2balance Your Energy Transition Control Center Status Quo Progress Finergy Consumption Path to Zero Emissions buildings Current greenhouse gas emissions by sector per capita The shares of energy sources per type of use Development, progress and projected carbon reduction Planning and simulation of the building inventory renewables Percentage and potentials of renewable energies infrastructure The state of the municipal Infrastructure geothermal Information on planning geothermal systems Gaseous and heating oil have the largest share of The stationary energy and transport sectors cause energy supply. The share of district heating and heat The climate targets 2025 will be missed, Climate 66.3% of your emissions. This corresponds to 10.7 kilotonnes annually pumps is low. neutrality will be achieved in 2047. planning 16,5 t per capita 1.234 kWh per capita 2047 regional climate action Alternative Energy and Heating Concepts for Municipalities Status Analysis, Potentials, Objectives and Measures Kontakt | Impressum | Nutzungsbedingungen | Datenschutzinformationen | Cookie-Richtlinie enersis

Gala

net zero cities' hero for cities, regions and the energy industry gaia is actively in use at more than 1800 municipalities across Europe www.enersis.de

We help you transform climate planning into action consuption data of buildings renewable energy potentials emissions today and in the future measures to reduce emissions