Named Representative Onsite (if different to operational contact)	Position in the company

THE HEALTH & SAFETY AT WORK ETC. ACT, 1974

It is a condition of entry into the exhibition that every exhibitor, contractor, sub-contractor, supplier and their agents comply with the Health & Safety at Work etc. Act, 1974 and all other legislation covering the venue. The exhibitor accepts that it is their legal and moral responsibility to ensure that their own and others health and safety is not put at risk by their actions (or inactions) throughout the tenancy. Below is a Health & Safety declaration:

The exhibitor will train and make their stand staff aware of the potential risks present onsite and will provide them with a copy of the manual and venue regulations. The exhibits, demonstrations and work practices displayed will cause NO HAZARDS to either themselves or to others onsite.

The exhibitor will make available a copy of their own company's Health & Safety policy, and our stand staff will be sufficiently instructed and trained in matters relating to Health & Safety in order to carry out their tasks competently.

All contractors at events Organised by Enlit Asia 2023, must ensure that they provide a safe place and system of work. Successful safety management requires the commitment, involvement and co-operation of all those on-site at an event. Contractors have a legal duty under current Health & Safety Regulations with which they must comply by law.
