

Technical Support Agreement

Customized consulting services to help DSOs optimize operations, drive innovation, and meet energy transformation objectives.

EDF International Networks offers customized services for electricity distribution companies, drawing on the global expertise of the EDF Group.

Our Technical Support Agreement proposals offer long-term partnerships that include support for your transformation projects, with a dedicated project manager to ensure responsiveness.

 edf-international-networks | www.edf-in.com

Our value proposal

EDF International Networks provides a variety of services to DSOs based on EDF Group's global expertise.

EDF International Networks offers a long-term partnership to support all your technical and transformation projects, managed by a dedicated project manager to guarantee responsiveness.

100%
of customer satisfaction

All our customers renew their contracts reflecting a deep level of satisfaction and trust in our services.

Flexibility: Our support may take various forms to fit with your needs

Based on the French DSO experience, we are equipped to help you face all the challenges

