Home & Gift Press Release:

Fresh faces joining the line up at Home & Gift
Harrogate

07/07/2022

As we get ready to kick off the biggest buying season of the year, Home & Gift Harrogate is excited to welcome back some familiar names in the industry, as well as introducing a host of fresh faces in their exhibitor line up for 2022.

Taking place from the 17th-20th July, the four-day show promises to be jam-packed with up-and-coming brands who are eager to make an impact, with 30% of exhibitors attending the show for the very first time this year! There really is nowhere better for buyers to source their Autumn/Winter collections from the most exciting new names across the five main event sectors.

To help you plan ahead, here's a sneak peek at just a few of the new additions you'll be able to meet at Home & Gift this year:

Aery Ltd

Made in the UK with sustainable ingredients, Aery uses 100% plant-based wax and carrier oils that are free from paraffin and palm oil. This brand is proudly vegan and cruelty-free, and aims to be as eco-conscious as possible with all candles, diffusers, candle holders and paper being plastic-free and recyclable.

Clarity Blends

They have created a range of ten essential oil blends uniquely formulated to address wellness needs. Their mission is to help customers clear their mind, boost their energy, sleep better, uplift their mood or transport them to a happy place with the natural scents.

Cascayde

From simple day-to-day sustainable swaps to plastic-free packaging, this brand believes that cutting down on single-use plastic should not mean compromising on the beautiful products you have in your life.

CAHM

Awarded Highly Commended for Best Newcomer at BCTF 2022, CAHM® is a fragrance and well-being brand with a loyal following, founded in 2020 by Amy Hogarth. Setting out to create something unique, this brand aims to encourage positive mental health habits through their products.
