Demi-fine Jewellery ✦ Retail Buyers' Guide

GOLD TRIP

Gold Trip is an independent British jewellery brand, based in London and specialising in demi-fine pieces. The brand was founded from a belief that beautiful, quality jewellery can be affordable and luxurious. We design bespoke pieces as well as scour the globe for elegant and minimalistic designed jewellery which are not only timeless, but made to last. We work with a variety of small and ethical workshops and ensure all of our packaging is recyclable.

Gold Trip founder, Michelle comes from a marketing and sales background in ultra-luxury products. During her career she travelled the world and found she wanted high-quality looking pieces that stood the test of time and that could be left in hotel safes or worn on the beach carefree. Combining her background of Mandarin studies whilst living in Beijing, combined with her extensive travel throughout China, Michelle gathered up her knowledge of manufacturing processes and took them back to the Far East where she found her amazing suppliers. Back in her home in Battersea, London, she founded Gold Trip in 2021 to offer exactly what she'd been looking for.

Most Gold Trip pieces are crafted from hallmarked 925 sterling silver, and plated in rhodium (for a scratch and tarnish-free silver finish), 18ct gold and some designs also in 18ct rose gold.

Each Gold Trip piece is presented in beautiful and reusable gift packaging, perfect for treating yourself or others.
