MARMALADE OF LONDON, WHERE FAMILY PASSION SPARKS EVERY FRAGRANT CREATION

STAND OUT FROM THE CROWD

Offer the unique and irresistible. Marmalade's hand-poured soy candles and sustainable bath and body products, all infused with essential oils and crafted with love, make a statement no other brand can match.

OUR MARMALADE STORY

Marmalade of London is a family business – Piers, Helen and pup Pepper. Our products make the perfect treat for anyone who appreciates beautiful fragrances, quality products, and a touch of indulgence.

As a family, we cherish those everyday moments: laughter shared around a candlelit table, or the calming scent of lavender and chamomile easing the day's stress.

We believe everyone deserves a daily refuge, a moment to melt away stress and ignite inner peace. This wish for wellbeing is present in every luxury candle, diffuser, and bath product that we make.

We embrace innovation while cherishing our British heritage, crafting contemporary fragrances that offer timeless luxury.

SCENTS AND SENSIBILITY

INDULGENCE AND LUXURY

Our mission is to create “a little indulgent luxury for every home”. We should all have an everyday treat within our reach, and that is why we offer high-quality, ethically sourced products at fair prices.

BRITISH-MADE USING NATURAL INGREDIENTS

In our eco-friendly factory in the Cotswolds we hand-pour sustainable soy wax candles infused with essential oils, before protecting them in sustainable packaging.

Our 100% natural soy wax candles burn cleanly and evenly, naturally scenting your room for 40–50 hours – longer than many other brands.

All our luxurious products are crafted in a way that is respectful to the Earth.

OUR COMMITMENT TO ANIMAL WELFARE

We believe in cruelty-free luxury, which is why our dog Pepper is the only “lab” assistant we need. She gets to enjoy the office perks (snuggles and belly rubs), while ensuring our fragrances are pup-approved and never tested on animals.

CELEBRATING OUR PASSIONATE TEAM

Behind the range of tantalising scents are our incredible team, who share our passion for candle-making as well as the belief that it’s not just about work; it’s about creating something special, together.
