BOTANICA

Lisa & Dolly...

Greetings Powder Family!

It has been a lovely busy time here for me at Powder HQ, as along with designing our gorgeous new collection, I have welcomed our newest furry family member – meet Dolly!

Our newest bundle of golden fluff is super lively and playful. She has already started visiting the office and brightening everyone's day.

We are excited for you to see more of her as she grows!

WOW!! Amazing new lower pricing for AW24!

I have been working incredibly hard with our loyal and longstanding manufacturers to deliver the unique and high quality Powder designs that you'd expect, but at far more competitive pricing!

With your wonderful support over the past 15 years, Powder has now grown internationally across North America, Europe and Australia. This means that we are now placing larger orders with our suppliers and they in turn have rewarded us with lower manufacturing costs... which we are passing straight onto you!

I'm absolutely delighted that your customers can continue to enjoy the unique Powder brand, at truly amazing prices!

We have some amazing opening offers for you this season and our lovely agents are as enthusiastic and knowledgeable as ever.

Let us walk you through the collection and show you how to make the range work best for you and your customer!

"Welcome to Botanica"

Adventure awaits as you explore flora that extends the imagination!
From one glorious petal to another, we have an abundance of pieces in all of the classic Powder categories that are adorned with vibrant designs sure to keep things chic this winter!
