lil wabbit

paper goods catalogue

hello from us; the lil wabbit team

georgi director of happiness | jai captain | taika head muse + sock stealer

we make glorious paper goods from our West Sussex studio inspired by our beautiful british wildlife as well as animals from across the globe lil wabbit was launched (accidentally) in the first lockdown of 2020 when I inherited my grandmother's art supplies and began painting for the very first time.

since then, it has grown to be our family business with cards flying out to happy customers and stockists all over the world.

we have been lucky enough to be recognised at The Henries and The UK Start Up Awards in this catalogue you will find our whole collection, beginning with birthday cards and wrap, followed by age cards, our relations range, love cards, our dog breed range new baby cards, thank you + celebration, sorry + sympathy, mum + dad cards our charity cards, our christmas range and then finally our stationery collection.

prices and details of how to order can be found on the back

our cards

every lil wabbit product features a hand painted watercolour illustration and is printed in the UK on mixed recycled, high-quality paper.

we pay attention to the tiniest of details and we think that's what makes us special.

here at lil wabbit, we sponsor one Sussex bee for every card sold, the bee icon on the back of our cards indicate the sponsorship of a local pollinator through our cards 4 bee's scheme.

dog mum noun

Someone who finds joy in all aspects of owning a dog. A dog mum will sacrifice anything to give their dog a wonderful existence and will take photos of every moment of it. No amount of cuddles or love is ever too much for a dog mum.

best dog dad

dog dad noun

Someone who goes above and beyond to make their dog's life joyous. A dog dad will talk excessively about their dog, even when no one's asked. Dog dads are often the best walking companions and will prioritise play fighting over all other activities.

baby milestone cards

our hand-me-down baby cards come in a beautifully designed box and include 20 milestone cards and a poem hand-me-down card which fits names and dates of birth for four babies the cards feature a double-sided design, are printed in the UK and have a soft velvet lamination for durability

hand-me-down

these cards were made to celebrate those little milestones in life, but we all know that waste in this world is so very rife, so hand down these cards to someone you hold dear, a family member, friend or a charity shop that's near, but before you do, make sure to write your baby's name and date of birth, then share the cards, spread the joy and protect our lovely earth!
