Autumn Winter 2025 Collection

Luella Grey London proudly introduces the Autumn Winter 2025 collection of handbags and purses alongside our new diffusion line – The Weekend Edit. A sophisticated contemporary collection rich in colour, texture, newness and signature style.

We've included the evocative colours of deep Cherry, Chocolate, Mushroom, Pecan, Paprika and Peacock to make this collection a visual feast for the eyes. These colours have been paired with seasonless classics Black, Khaki, and Conker for an Autumn colour palette bursting with elegant tones.

This season introduces beautiful artisanal touches, including hand woven pieces presented in soft constructions and intricate braided handles. These finishes have been expertly crafted to create our 'hero' styles for the season. Standout pieces include the luxurious woven-bodied Flora and Maggie, as well as Thelma and Hester with their Tooting Half-Covered Metal Chain strap.

Our 'Back to Work' collection has been increased with several beautiful backpacks and work totes, all designed for modern work-life and a 'pack-your-laptop-and-go' style. All laptop bags have the Luella Grey signature embellishment and craftsmanship that tells us apart from other brands.

For off-duty style, the Weekend Edit has been designed to make travelling, both home and abroad, stylish, and practical. The collection features holdalls, washbags, phone, and small bags with a 'clip-and-go' strap and a removable purse charm for keeping cards/ear-pods and essentials safely close by.

All Luella Grey accessories are lovingly designed in our South London studio, we hope you love the collection as much as we do and we wish you all the best season ahead.

With love
