

Leona Stewart Glass

HANDMADE IN AYR, SCOTLAND

Leona Stewart Glass Products in the Burrell Collection Shop

Leona Stewart is a self employed glass artist based in Ayr, west coast of Scotland. Her love of her garden, birds, local landscapes and environmental coastal surroundings influence her designs. Her studio has been established in her garden for over 20 years where she creates and teaches.

Her fused glass gifts are made from her own designs and she handmakes everyint herself.

The wood bases are locally sourced from an Ayrshire farm.

Leona met the Principle Buyer for Glasgow Museums at Home & Gift 21 and is absolutely delighted to be supplying the newly refurbished Burrell Collection shop with a range of her colourful fused glass birds.

She is a member of the Scottish Glass Society, Contemporary Glass Society & has exhibited at The Gallery & The Barony in West Kilbride (Scotland's Craft Town), Roger Billcliffe Gallery, Glasgow Print Studio, The Harbour Arts Centre in Irvine & The Maclaurin Galleries in Ayr.
