About Us

Founded in 2013, Peper Harow is a quintessentially British brand supplying customers across the globe with the highest quality socks, luxury accessories and exquisite gifts. Our designs are unique, fashionable and created to compliment the modern lifestyle of both men and women.

Our name, Peper Harow comes from a Parish of the same name in Surrey with a cricket heritage dating back to 1727. The name is representational of our inspiration of British roots.

The manufacturing sector is one of the most energy intensive sectors in the UK. We believe that it is important to minimise the environmental impact and secure our progressive future. We have installed solar panels on our warehouse roof which has helped to reduce our energy consumption by 20%.

We are also proactive in only sourcing and using sustainable packaging in all of our products.

Here at Peper Harow we pride ourselves on only using the finest quality cottons, not all cottons are created equal – they are differentiated by the length of their fiber (or staple) the tiny strands that make up a raw piece of cotton. You can be assured that here at Peper Harow we only work with extra-long staple cottons – the finest, most luxurious quality of cotton, renowned for its superior quality thanks to the length of its fiber.

And to make our socks even more special they are made entirely in the UK, the cotton is sustainably and ethically sourced and grown, the dyes used are Azo free and we never test on animals, giving you luxuriously soft, superior quality socks every time.
