our story

SO FAR

Henry & Co Home fragrance was born from a mutual love of home fragrance from two business associates and a passion for creating and delivering a home fragrance experience unlike any other on the high street.

As we all know, 2020 and the years following it were a time like no other, the impact on every member of society and every business had been unparalleled and life changed in ways that no one could have ever thought possible. As a business this gave us the chance to look at our company and focus some time on how we might invigorate our own stores and to create our own brand of products in a field we had over 10 years of experience in. The dream was to develop a Fragrance brand that would engage customers and inspire special moments in their lives, while delivering excellent quality home fragrance for every home.

Our founders, Mark and Jo had been working together for many years within Mark's retail business, specialising in gifts and home fragrance. Jo always had a passion for home fragrance and had spent years perfecting her talent through making her own candles, wax melts and diffusers for a number of years in her spare time as gifts for her loved ones.

When our Henry & Co retail stores had no other option than to close and lockdown was in full swing, it gave Mark and Jo the time and space they needed away from the retail business to progress a dream they had for many years, to create their own brand of home fragrance products. By blending Mark's business skills and creativity with Jo's knowledge and talent for producing amazing home fragrance products - Henry & Co Home Fragrance was born.

handmade WITH PASSION

Step through the doors of our workshop and you will be greeted with the most glorious aromas!

We pride ourselves on our exceptional home fragrance products and the small team that produces them. Every one of our products from wax melts to candles are measured, mixed and poured by hand in our Yorkshire workshop and then packaged to be distributed throughout the UK.

Our highly skilled team of fragrance experts are trained to make each and every product with care and precision to bring you the highly fragranced and long lasting scents of Henry & Co Home Fragrance.

WAX MELTS

Henry & Co Home Fragrance wax melts, each cube is full of fragrance with a burn time of up to 6 hours per melt. A perfectly balanced blend of natural soy wax, mineral wax and fragrance oil all put together and poured by hand in our Yorkshire workshop. Each wax melt is carefully poured and hand packed into our hand labelled glassine bags to ensure each product is in perfect condition.
