HELLO!

Hello - I'm Zoe, and thank you for exploring my Village Green range of colourful gifts and homewares.

I've been designing product ranges for major retailers for 25 years and during the first lockdown, thought how few gifts were available that celebrated the fabulous colours and countryside of our United Kingdom. That's why I created this lovely collection of mugs, kitchen linens and stationery, bringing my illustrations of the gorgeous countryside to life in a gift range, appealing to visitors, stay-cationers and locals alike.

With my children and Alice the cat, I live in the foothills of the Chilterns, enjoying the great outdoors through the seasons, cycling, walking and exploring my local area. I'm a keen traveller and my inspiration comes not only from my home environment but the fabulous places I get to visit – in the UK and abroad.

I do hope you enjoy browsing the range and love the idea of bringing the uplifting colour of the countryside into your shops.

Zoe
