About us

Matahari Interiors is a family-run company, passionate about craftsmanship, materials and making homes beautiful.

Based in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia and Cheshire, UK, we have direct access to independent manufacturers across the far east and our mission is to offer a range of fine luxury furnishings that are beautiful, functional and not out of reach. We source direct from the producers and ensure each one can produce pieces to the highest quality using the best materials and with a sustainable approach.

The name Matahari comes from the Malay word "Sun". This is our inspiration behind the vision to bring brightness, warmth and colour to homes in the UK.

Sustainability & CSR

Sustainability : At Matahari Interiors, our ultimate goal is complete end-to-end sustainability and net-zero in all our products and practices. As a newbie into the furniture e-commerce space, this journey is just beginning, and we feel this is a very important long-term task that is essential to all our futures. Our first step is working with suppliers and distribution partners who have a similar mindset and approach. Building on this, formal accreditations and sustainability certificates are in the works for the coming months and years.

CSR (Corporate Social Responsibility): CSR is the idea that a business acts in a socially responsible way to positively impact the world around it. This includes the environmental, ethical and philanthropic responsibilities.

In addition to our commitment ensuring all our materials are sustainably sourced, our aim is that Matahari Interiors also helps to make the world a better place. We visit all of our manufacturing partners to ensure their operations meet our high standards for ethical working practices. We also commit to donating 10% of our annual profits to helping good causes and local initiatives in these regions which need a helping hand. A few of our charitable support organisations are listed below;

- Franciscan Sisters of the Immaculate Conception (FSIC) Needy Children Education Fund
- Sepilok Orangutan rehabilitation centre (www.orangutan-appeal.org.uk)
- Borneo Sunbear Conservation Centre (www.bsbcc.org.my)
- National Elephant Conservation Centre, Kuala Gandah, Malaysia

What is rubberwood?

Rubberwood, also known as Malaysian Oak, is a light coloured, medium-density tropical hardwood obtained from the Pará rubber tree (Hevea brasiliensis). Sourced from trees grown in Malaysian rubber plantations, our Rubberwood is fully renewable as it does not impact natural forests and makes use of plantation trees that have already served a useful function.

With a light natural finish and straight grain, Rubberwood is commonly used for manufacturing high-quality but affordable eco-friendly contemporary furniture.

QUALITY, SUSTAINABILITY & DURABILITY – THE MATAHARI INTERIORS PROMISE

At Matahari Interiors, we believe that great furniture should be both stylish and responsible. That's why we are proud to introduce our latest collection from an FSC-certified supplier, ensuring all wood materials come from responsibly managed forests.

Why Choose FSC-Certified Furniture?

- Sustainable Forestry – Protecting forests for future generations.
- Ethical Sourcing – Ensuring fair wages and responsible practices.
- Eco-Friendly Living – Reducing environmental impact and deforestation.

Built to Last – 12-Month Warranty

We stand by the quality of our products. Every item in our collection is backed by a 12-month warranty, giving you peace of mind and confidence in your purchase.

Durable & Secure Packaging – ISTA 1A Standard

Our furniture is carefully packaged to meet the ISTA 1A drop-test standard, ensuring it arrives safely at your doorstep. This industry-recognized test guarantees durability during shipping and handling, so your furniture reaches you in perfect condition.

At Matahari Interiors, we blend sustainability, quality, and durability—because you deserve the best.
